CAMELBACK INN® SCOTTSDALE

The perfect getaway. Effortlessly achieved.

There's always something special about being the first. The first boot prints on the trail at sunrise, the first one into the pool, the first person to tee off under towering saguaros. Such moments are powerful, and we know them well. We were the first luxury resort in Scottsdale, and we've carried that feeling with us since 1936.

A lot has changed since then. Today our dramatic resort beneath majestic Mummy Mountain encompasses 125 acres. We have two championship golf courses, Scottsdale's most beloved spa, exceptional dining options and endless recreation.

On the other hand, a lot has stayed the same here. We love the art of hospitality more than ever and we continue to perfect it through the decades.

We take away unnecessary distractions and take care of your every desire.

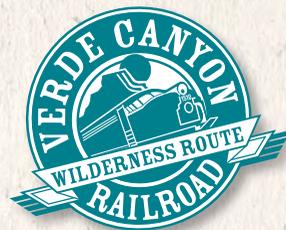

Discover undiluted desert beauty, enchanting Southwestern charm and luxurious hospitality at Camelback Inn. Let us be the first to welcome you.

THE

OF THE DESERT

By Roger Naylor

le

I'M HIKING IN AN IMPOSSIBLE PLACE, ONE THAT SHOULDN'T EXIST. I'm walking across desert that should have vanished years ago. Yet instead of traffic noises, I hear a chorus of birdsong. Mighty saguaros rise overhead, not buildings. My views of hard-boned mountains marching toward the horizon are unobstructed. Cactus and stone, sky and cliffs are all I see.

Welcome to Scottsdale's McDowell Sonoran Preserve — the city's utterly impossible and truly unforgettable backyard.

GRASSROOTS BEGINNINGS

Many cities pay lip service to quality-of-life issues. Some even go so far as to carve out a few strategic buffers of open space. The epic scale of what Scottsdale set aside, however, is virtually unprecedented.

It began with a few passionate activists. They formed the McDowell Sonoran Conservancy and fought to protect the mountains and desert of North Scottsdale, most of which was private land ripe for development. The grassroots effort expanded, political leaders got on board, and Scottsdale residents voted not once but twice in favor of a sales tax increase to raise money to purchase land. The result is the largest urban preserve in the United States, a crown jewel of city planning and a reminder that just a few determined people can make a difference.

Mountain bikers taking in the views of the magnificent McDowell Sonoran Preserve

LAND OF IMPOSSIBLE BEAUTY

Visitors to the Preserve – which spans more than 30,500 acres and totals a full one-third of Scottsdale's land area – will discover soaring mountains, boulder-crowned mesas, storm-carved arroyos and cacti as tall as office buildings. More than 225 miles of shared-use trails, departing from multiple trailheads, delve into the outback, exposing the scenic wonders of a rugged frontier.

Although it's a single connected land area, the Preserve can be broken into two distinct regions. The southern half consists of the McDowell Mountain Range and is served by three major trailheads: Lost Dog in the south, Gateway in the middle and Tom's Thumb on the north side.

The northern half of the Preserve is flatter, a landscape of rolling desert hills, but is marked by five standalone mountains: Cone, Brown's, Cholla, Granite and Fraesfield.

McDowell Sonoran Conservancy

The primary trailheads in the north region are Brown's Ranch, Fraesfield and Granite Mountain.

I fall more in love with this wild desert each time I go. Recently, I spent a weekend hiking in the McDowell Sonoran Preserve. Here are a few of my favorite moments.

- As soon as I set foot on the Ringtail Trail, I noticed I was walking through the densest grove of teddy bear cholla I'd ever seen. Growing like little hobbit-sized trees, the teddy bear is a sly, insidious cactus. The plant bristles with such a proliferation of spines it appears fuzzy, yet each thorny pad breaks off at a whisper of movement. So prone to latch on to anyone who gets close, they're often called "jumping cholla." Yet they can be absolutely dazzling, catching the sweet light at dawn and dusk and radiating a shimmering aura from their golden spines.
- While pausing at the saddle on Gateway Loop to enjoy expansive views, I was suddenly serenaded by a mournful melody of coyote yips. I stood alone in the desert listening to the call of coyotes. Much to my surprise, I understood what they were saying. Because some days we all miss the moon.
- Stopping to read the signs along the stunning Marcus Landslide Trail, I began to comprehend the massive, mountain-peeling avalanche of rock that took place here a half-million years ago. And then to walk among the clutter of boulders that compose the landslide and see the mile-long path they traveled in this quiet corner of desert is incredibly poignant. I'm fascinated by the geological forces that shape this land, which would make every science teacher I ever had palm-slap their foreheads since I slept like an astronaut in deep-space stasis through their classes.

- Descending from Sunrise Peak, I was dazzled at the opposite end of the spectrum by a sunset. It was one of those complex, lavish and scandalous affairs. The sun goes down in Arizona like everywhere else, but it does not go quietly. This was a fiesta of explosive color and reckless light. Columns of clouds went up in flames. All around me mountaintops turned purple, saguaros arose like lean shadow giants and a golden light flooded the land. Amid this bloody revolution, a feeling of utter serenity descended. Despite the chaos, it is a peaceful, quiet time. The day was done but it ended with a wild flourish. I'm grateful I got to see such an impossible sight from this impossible place.

If you go: Access to Scottsdale's McDowell Sonoran Preserve is free, and trails are open daily from sunrise to sunset. For trailhead locations, maps, trail descriptions and a calendar of events, visit mcdowellsonoran.org or scottsdaleaz.gov/preserve.

DINE LIKE A local

By JoAnne Zeterberg

One of the joys of visiting a new city is seeking out those one-of-a-kind, locally owned restaurants that give you an authentic taste of the town. Here are seven home-grown Scottsdale gems that are beloved by locals and visitors alike.

THE MISSION (above)

Chef and restaurateur Matt Carter has a serious taco habit – and we’re glad he does! What began as a fondness for authentic Mexican street food evolved first into epic backyard pig roasts for Carter’s friends and family, then eventually into his concept for The Mission, which boasts two Scottsdale locations: Old Town and Kierland Commons. Start with the 12-ingredient guacamole, then peruse Carter’s robust menu of modern Latin cuisine that includes delights like spicy grilled street corn, pork shoulder tacos with pineapple-habanero glaze, and Almejas al Vapor, a savory Peruvian clam and shrimp stew. themissionaz.com

VIRTÙ HONEST CRAFT

Located on property at Old Town’s Bespoke Inn, Virtù dishes up contemporary Mediterranean fare by chef/owner Gio Osso. The menu, which changes almost daily based on seasonal ingredients, is known for elegant shareable dishes like the Asparagi with two-wash ranch duck egg, feta, bacon candy, foie gras hollandaise and a truffle drizzle.

VIRTÙ HONEST CRAFT

A variety of pasta, seafood and beef dishes round out your options. Enjoy them all under the cozy glow of festoon lighting on one of the city’s most romantic patios. virtuscottsdale.com

FNB (right)

Chef Charleen Badman and front-of-the-house phenom Pavle Milic are the dynamic duo behind this Old Town gem. Badman’s veggie-forward menu, crafted from locally sourced organic ingredients, changes regularly and also includes artisan meats and seafood, locally made pasta and decadent desserts. My favorite way to experience FnB is to go with a group of friends, uncork a selection from Milic’s hand-curated Arizona wine list, and order a variety of dishes to share with the table. fnbrestaurant.com

Best Arizona Parks

NOT NAMED GRAND CANYON

STORY AND PHOTOS BY ROGER NAYLOR

LAKE PLEASANT REGIONAL PARK

Cacti as tall as office buildings, remnants of ancient civilizations, legendary swimming holes, a forest turned to colorful stone and sparkling lakes. Yes, there's more to Arizona than the Grand Canyon. Some of the best parts of this amazing state are protected in parks that aren't named after a big hole in the ground.

SAGUARO NATIONAL PARK

The Sonoran Desert stretching across the southern half of Arizona is home to the largest, most iconic cactus in the country. The mighty saguaro can grow as tall as a five-story building and sprouts a cluster of upraised arms as if reaching for the clouds. Saguaros can live to be 200 years old, and their blossom is Arizona's state flower. The lean giants are celebrated in two segments of Saguaro National Park that bracket the city of Tucson. Each offers scenic drives, hiking trails and the most biologically diverse of all deserts.

LAKE PLEASANT REGIONAL PARK

No one appreciates water more than desert dwellers, so the numerous lakes shimmering on the outskirts of Scottsdale are beloved destinations. Big Lake Pleasant, ringed by cactus-dotted hills, makes a watery playground for anglers, boaters, swimmers, campers and hikers. Wildlife sightings are common at this unexpected oasis, but keep a special eye out for the wild burros that are frequent visitors.

PETRIFIED FOREST NATIONAL PARK

A rolling prairie breaks apart against a cluster of inhospitable badlands in northeastern Arizona. Crumbling siltstone banded with seams of color shimmers and changes with the light. It's hard to imagine while gazing across this wind-scoured landscape, but during the Triassic Period this was a tropical jungle patrolled by crocodile-like reptiles, giant amphibians and small dinosaurs. Remnants of that time – sprawling collections of colorful petrified wood – are found throughout the park.

AZ's Big 3

These tried-and-true spots are a must for any Arizona explorer.

THE GRAND CANYON

At 277 miles long, 18 miles wide and 1 mile deep, the Grand Canyon is overwhelming in its size and beauty. Explore the South Rim and marvel at the Canyon's breathtaking combination of geologic color and erosional formations.

474 miles / 7:30 hrs. RT, nps.gov/grca

SEDONA

Sedona's red-rock landscape is a stunning backdrop for Jeep tours, hiking and vortex tours. In town, enjoy award-winning resorts and spas, unique boutiques, fine dining, and a renowned arts and cultural scene.

KARTCHNER CAVERNS

One of the world's only "living" caves open to the public, Kartchner Caverns offers daily tours into a breathtaking world of underground formations like the massive Kubla Khan, the largest column formation in Arizona.

SLIDE ROCK STATE PARK

HOT TIP

If you visit Slide Rock in mid-April, you just might catch the park's historic apple orchard in full bloom!

SLIDE ROCK STATE PARK

Visitors to this park, nestled in Oak Creek Canyon north of Sedona, can cool off in one of the most famous swimming holes in the Southwest. Stone banks throttle the creek into a narrow, frothy chute creating a natural water slide. Along the route are pools of varying depth, perfect for wading, swimming and cliff jumping. During other seasons, savor the tall canyon walls and the historic orchards of the old homestead where you can picnic like there's no tomorrow.

264 miles / 4:48 hrs. RT, azstateparks.com

WUPATKI NATIONAL MONUMENT

The dwellings at Wupatki were the work of the Ancestral Puebloan people through the centuries, including the Hohokam, Cohonina, Kayenta and Sinagua cultures. They were constructed from thin blocks of Moenkopi sandstone, giving them their distinctive red color. Most were built more than 900 years ago on the volcanic plains of Northern Arizona in the shadow of the San Francisco Peaks.

368 miles / 5:50 hrs. RT, nps.gov/wupa

WUPATKI NATIONAL MONUMENT

PICACHO PEAK STATE PARK

The westernmost battle of the Civil War was fought on the flanks of a mountain that's part of an eroded volcanic flow, about 76 miles southeast of Scottsdale. Today, such violence seems far removed from the peace and quiet of the park.

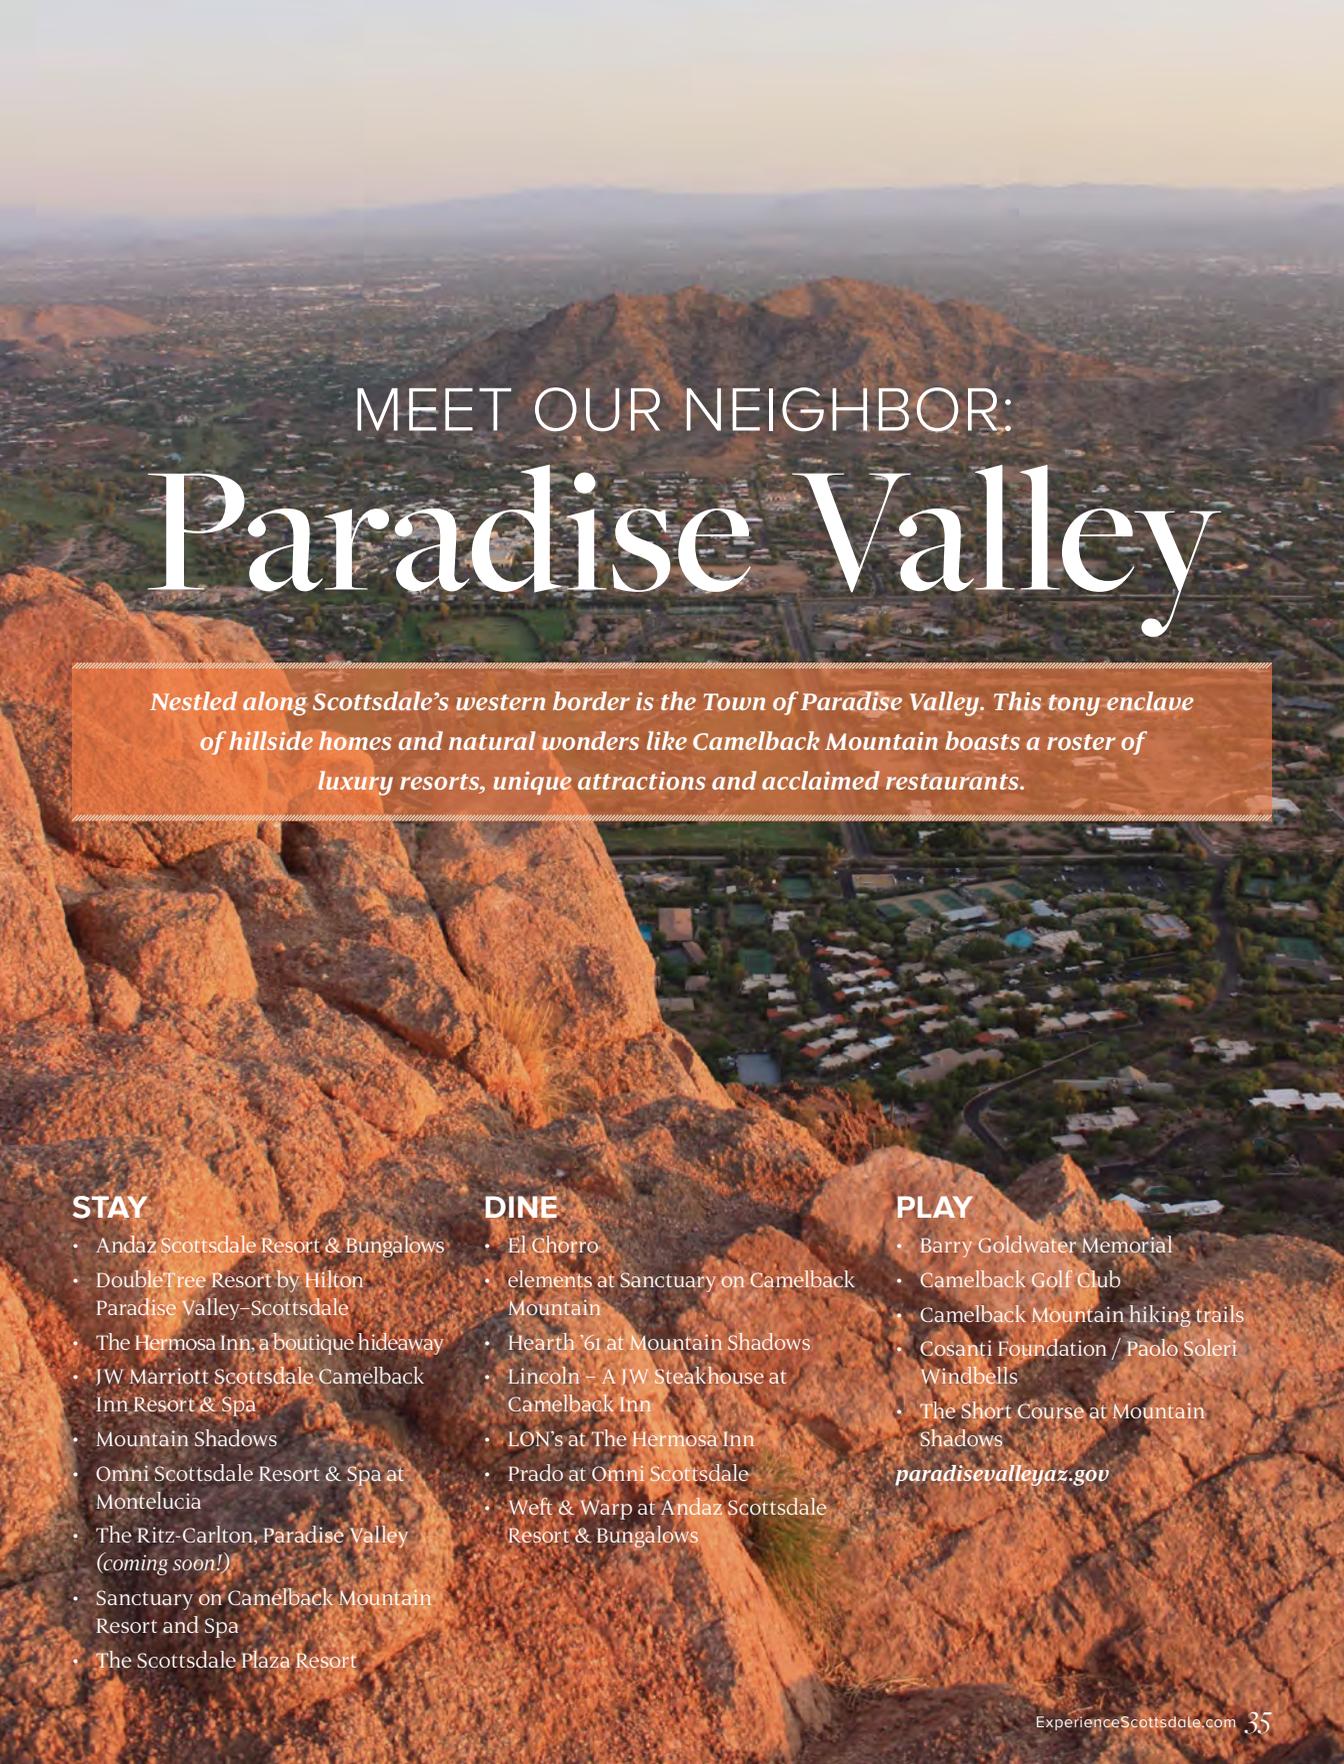

Rising from the desert floor, the distinctive spire is veined by hiking trails. When conditions are right, Picacho features some of the greatest spring wildflower displays in the state, with waves of golden poppies spilling down its slopes.

SPA TREATMENTS

The curative properties of Sonoran Desert botanicals have been celebrated for centuries. Soothe your mind, body and soul with one of these innovative treatments that blend indigenous ingredients and traditional Native American healing techniques with modern-day indulgences.

BY KELLY TRIPLETT

Number One

ADOBE CLAY PURIFICATION TREATMENT

Inspired by ancient Native American healing rituals, this treatment from The Spa at Camelback Inn exfoliates, nourishes and detoxifies the skin and body. To begin, an aromatic conditioner is massaged into the hair and scalp. Next, pure adobe clay is applied to the body to relax muscles and draw out impurities. A shower with Southwestern-inspired soap and a cactus fiber cloth removes the clay and is followed by an application of warmed juniper and sage oils. camelbackspa.com

Number Two

JOJOBA & PRICKLY PEAR BODY POLISH

This luscious treatment at The Spa at Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale at Troon North uncovers your skin's natural glow and is rich in jojoba and plant antioxidants. Prickly pear sugar scrub is applied and then rinsed under a Vichy shower. The treatment continues with a loofah-applied prickly pear body wash and concludes with a nourishing finish of prickly pear and jojoba body butter. fourseasons.com/scottsdale

Number Three

AGAVE BODY GLOW

Banish dry skin and show your glow with this full-body polish at Agave, the Arizona Spa at The Westin Kierland Resort. Your treatment begins with a gentle exfoliation using a polish infused with citrus essential oils and jojoba beads. An application of rich body cream lightly scented with neroli and orange blossom seals in moisture and nourishes your skin. marriott.com/phxws

Number Four

HAVASUPAI FALLS REJUVENATION

This Southwestern experience at Well & Being at the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess starts with a sage smudging to cleanse your energy, followed by a scrub with essential oil-infused desert salts. Your journey continues with a rain shower rinse and a thermal mineral magnesium soak. Afterward, a massage with jojoba body butter prepares your skin for warm Himalayan salt stones. A Sedona clay mask is applied to your face, followed by a scalp massage and an herbal wrap. Finish with a facial moisturizer to regenerate skin. scottsdaleprincess.com

SPAS & WELLNESS

Number Five

SPIRIT OF THE DESERT

Inspired by CIVANA's medicine wheel garden, this treatment uses warm Pima cotton poultices filled with herbs to facilitate renewed feelings of vitality and balance. Rhythmic strokes with the herb-laced sachets, combined with a soothing massage of warm vibrational oils, are applied along your body's energy pathways. Absorb the healing power of the desert in this close-to-nature experience. civanacarefree.com

Number Six

WHAT A PRICK

If your man could use a little sprucing up, send him off to We Do Men – A Male Concept Spa, where treatments – all with tongue-in-cheek names – range from skincare and massage to packages that include brow work, local booze sampling and a 15-minute massage. The “What a Prick,” Boss Lady Stacey Grondahl's signature treatment, is all about the healing properties of cacti and relaxing massage. wedomen.com

Number Seven

DESERT BLISS

Looking for a desert-inspired indulgence for your hands and feet? This treatment at The Phoenician Spa begins with a soothing, aromatic exfoliation with Salts of the Desert. After nail shaping, cuticle care and the banishing of any calluses, a massage with uplifting Cactus Flower body butter soothes and renews hands or feet (or both!). Your choice of nail color or buffing provides the finishing touch! thephoenician.com

Number Eight

BOULDERS SIGNATURE CLAY WRAP

The Spa at the Boulders Resort offers this unique treatment based on the Native American belief that turquoise stone carries the vibration of protection, self-confidence and positive energy. A revitalizing desert salt exfoliation supports a nourishing warm turquoise clay wrap that purifies and refines the skin. theboulders.com

Number Nine

DESERT LAVENDER

This massage is inspired by tradition and is signature to The Spa at Talking Stick Resort. It begins with a blend of desert lavender and wild chaparral oil to relieve stress and quiet the mind. Feather-light strokes with warmed tufts of raw Pima cotton calm the emotions of the body and soothe the central nervous system, allowing for complete relaxation. talkingstickresort.com

Number Ten

DESERT DREAMING RITUAL

This luxurious desert journey at the Andaz Scottsdale Resort & Bungalows' Palo Verde Spa focuses on your beauty and well-being from head to toe. You'll assist in creating the custom-made body scrub and hydrating jojoba butter mask that will be used to restore the vitality of your complexion. Steamy aromatic compresses, the spa's signature jojoba hair and scalp treatment, and a prickly pear facial massage combine to offer the best of the desert's bounty. andazscottsdale.com 🌺

GOLF

HIT THE GREENS

SCOTTSDALE GOLF'S top 10 split

Golf is hard. But that's exactly what makes it so beguiling, whether you're a veteran golfer looking to get better or a beginner just experiencing the thrill of hitting a straight shot or making a long putt for the first time. Either way, if you're on the course that means you're outdoors in a green space, likely with friends, and having a few laughs along the way. No matter how you play, a bad day at the golf course usually beats a good day in the office. Fortunately, Scottsdale has plenty of course options for both experienced and beginning golfers.

BY TOM MACKIN

5 COURSES FOR EXPERIENCED GOLFERS

TPC SCOTTSDALE STADIUM COURSE

If you really want to test your game, then head to where the world's best golfers have been teeing it up annually since 1987: the TPC Scottsdale Stadium Course, home to the PGA TOUR's Waste Management Phoenix Open. Normal conditions mean the rough isn't quite as thick and the greens aren't quite as slick as they are just before and during tournament week, but one loop around this layout and you will quickly get a much better sense of just how good the pros really are at their job. tpc.com/scottsdale

GRAYHAWK GOLF CLUB

The Tom Fazio-designed Raptor Course hosted a PGA TOUR event back in the late 2000s, and it's still tough enough that breaking par from the tips is quite an accomplishment. Massive bunkers guard many large greens where three-putts are not uncommon, and the closing par-5 remains one of the Valley's best. The country's top college players are scheduled to give the Raptor Course their best shot(s) when it hosts the NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Golf Championships in 2021 and 2022. grayhawkgolf.com

TROON NORTH GOLF CLUB

The gold standard for upscale daily-fee golf in Arizona and the Southwest when it debuted in 1990 retains its role as one of the best 36-hole facilities anywhere. Both the Monument and Pinnacle courses are formidable, but the Monument recently underwent a renovation that included all new greens and new bunker sand. You'll also see the unforgettable course namesake in the middle of the third fairway: a giant boulder that is most definitely in play. troonnorthgolf.com

AK-CHIN SOUTHERN DUNES GOLF CLUB

This U.S. Open sectional qualifying venue and three-time Arizona Amateur host is always ready to take on the best players. Located in the city of Maricopa, the course has plenty of length (7,546 yards from the tips), some strong breezes moving across the desert floor, well-positioned bunkers, and subtle yet tricky greens. Survive all of that and you are more than deserving of one of the delicious and calorific milkshakes made in the clubhouse overlooking the ninth and 18th greens. akchinsoutherndunes.com

SUNRIDGE CANYON

When a course promotes its closing stretch of holes as the “Wicked Six,” you know you are in for a challenge. Such is the case here, where a mostly downhill front nine reverses direction and climbs back upward for the challenging final sixsome of holes, capped off with a par-5 finale that has an elevated green. Wicked indeed. sunridgegolf.com

5 COURSES FOR BEGINNERS

KIERLAND GOLF CLUB

Always in stellar condition, the 27 holes on the Westin Kierland Resort & Spa property were designed by Scott Miller, who generously lined numerous fairways with mounding that often helps direct wayward shots back into play (thank you Mr. Miller). Entrances to most greens are accessible, and forced carries are few. You also have a fleet of vehicles to choose from for transporting yourself and your clubs around the course: a regular golf cart, GolfBoard, GolfBike, TurfRider, and the Ellwee, a single-rider, ATV-type of vehicle. kierlandgolf.com

PAPAGO GOLF COURSE

This municipal course located just east of Sky Harbor International Airport has been welcoming golfers of all skill levels since 1963. The tree-lined fairways are pretty wide, water is in play only on one hole (to the right of the first green), and you get some memorable views of the colorful Papago Buttes right next to the course. Beginners are even invited to tour the facility and learn where everything is before stepping onto the course!

papagogolfcourse.net

TALKING STICK GOLF CLUB

While both the North (known as “O’odham”) and South (“Piipaash”) courses at this venue (located right behind Talking Stick Resort & Casino) are fairly straightforward designs by famed architects Bill Coore and Ben Crenshaw, it’s the latter’s layout that may be better suited for those still learning the game. The greens aren’t quite as crowned, and fewer angles come into play on the mostly flat fairways. talkingstickgolfclub.com

THE SHORT COURSE AT MOUNTAIN SHADOWS

Bigger is not always better, especially when it comes to courses for beginning golfers. That’s why the aptly named Short Course at Mountain Shadows, featuring 18 par-3s that range from 50 yards to 150 yards from the forward tees, is a fun option. It’s an easy walk, too, but carts are available. mountainshadows.com

STARFIRE GOLF CLUB

The nine-hole Mulligan Course here is a favorite of locals. With eight par-3s and one par-4, plus five sets of tees on each hole, it usually takes no more than 90 minutes to get around this layout. Plus, it’s conveniently located right off the 101, just north of Old Town Scottsdale. starfiregolf.com 🌿

CAMELBACK
GOLF CLUB

Setting the course for elevated golf, understated luxury and legendary adventure.

Camelback Golf Club offers one of the most spectacular golf experiences in the Southwest. Experience 36-holes of championship golf including the award-winning Ambiente course by Hurdzan Fry Environmental Golf Design, and the classically-designed Arthur Hills Padre course.

Our full-service Golf Club features a practice facility, driving range, chipping and putting greens, 36,000 sq.ft. Clubhouse, 1,800 sq.ft. top-rated Golf Shop, club rentals, lessons, Acacia restaurant and lounge – open for breakfast, lunch and happy hour with outdoor fireside patio seating, complimentary golf for kids 10 and under and event space for groups of 15 to 300.

GOLF IN SCOTTSDALE

BY KELLY TRIPLETT

There's no denying that Scottsdale is the world's best golf destination, as evidenced by the 200-area courses and the awards that keep piling up, including being named the 2018 Golf Course Destination of the Year by the International Association of Golf Tour Operators.

While all the notoriety can certainly mean more expensive greens fees, there are deals to be had year-round – even in peak season. You just have to know where to look.

Here's the inside scoop on how to save on golf next time you're in Scottsdale:

SLEEP IN

Many courses cut their greens fees up to 50 percent for late-morning or afternoon tee times. Bonus: You'll wrap up just in time to hit the 19th hole at the clubhouse bar and catch a spectacular sunset. Here are three to try:

- Silverado Golf Course: Located just minutes from Old Town Scottsdale, Silverado's par-70, 18-hole course lures golfers of all skill levels with undulating terrain, elevated tee boxes and mid-double-digit afternoon greens fees.
- McDowell Mountain Golf Club: In addition to discounted late-afternoon greens fees, be sure to check out their web specials and combo offerings like "Nine & Dine" and "Back 9 & Breakfast," which includes a breakfast or lunch entrée in your fee when you dine at the clubhouse's Mesquite Grille.

- Boulders Club: With afternoon greens fees coming in at around $180, the Boulders Club is well worth the price of admission. The club offers two scenic championship courses that are considered among the most demanding in the Southwest.

BUY IN BULK

As any good Costco shopper knows, discounts come to those who buy in bulk. Get the best bang for your buck with packages that allow you to play multiple rounds on one course or that pair rounds with a hotel stay.

- Stay & Play Packages: Phoenix Scottsdale Golf and Pinnacle Golf Vacations handle every detail of your stay with golf packages that make the game affordable for everyone. Packages include accommodations at a variety of area hotels and rounds of golf based on the number of days booked.
- Bounce-Back Rates: Many Scottsdale golf clubs, including Troon North and We-Ko-Pa, have multiple courses and offer bounce-back rates so you can play the courses for a discounted fee on different days.

PLAY MUNICIPAL COURSES

Golf in Scottsdale never disappoints, even at municipal courses. If you're on a tight budget, consider teeing off at one of these courses:

TOP 10 WAYS TO EXPLORE SCOTTSDALE'S

Sonoran Desert

BY JOANNE ZETERBERG

Scottsdale's lush Sonoran Desert is an ideal playground for outdoors enthusiasts. Whether you're looking for edge-of-your-seat adventures or something a little more low-key, here are 10 great ways to explore the Sonoran Desert. Best of all, there's no experience required! Just contact one of Scottsdale's professional outfitters and they'll help you plan the Sonoran Desert adventure of your dreams!

Number One

SADDLE UP FOR A TRAIL RIDE

Get in touch with your inner cowboy or cowgirl on a guided horseback-riding trek! Beginners to experienced riders are welcome. You will enjoy stunning Sonoran Desert views and the companionship of a gentle horse as you ride through rolling mountain foothills and lush desert washes.

Number Two

FLY HIGH

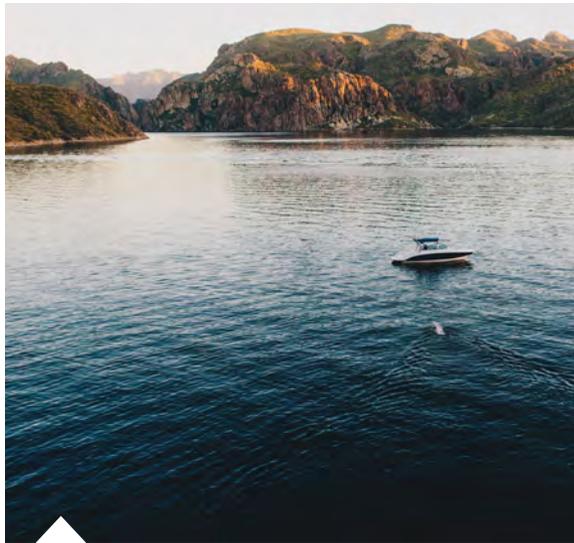

In a landscape as panoramic as the Sonoran Desert, there's no better way to soak it all in than on a hot-air balloon flight. You'll drift along with the breeze as your pilot guides the balloon high into the air for expansive scenic views or dips close to the ground for a glimpse of wildlife and native vegetation. Every ride ends with a champagne toast to commemorate your flight.

Hop into a Tomcar – the ultimate off-road, you-drive-it vehicle – and get ready for a wild desert adventure! These specially designed, military-grade vehicles can cover all types of terrain, including the rockiest desert washes. As you twist and turn along rugged desert paths, you'll see towering saguaros and maybe even catch a glimpse of wildlife like bald eagles, javelina and wild horses.

Number Four

EXPLORE A LAKE

Just 35 miles northeast of Old Town Scottsdale, Saguaro Lake boasts more than 22 miles of shoreline, secluded coves and plenty of on-the-water fun. At the marina, you can rent a runabout, fishing or pontoon boat, or take a 90-minute cruise on a double-decker paddleboat, the Desert Belle.

Number Five

TAKE A HIKE IN THE MCDOWELL SONORAN PRESERVE

At 30,500 acres and growing, Scottsdale's McDowell Sonoran Preserve is the largest urban preserve in the nation. Seven trailheads located around the city give you access to more than 225 miles of shared-use paths, from the ADA-accessible Bajada Nature Trail, a half-mile interpretive path, to the challenging Tom's Thumb summit climb.

Number Six

GO OFF-ROAD (DAY OR NIGHT!)

Guided tours by Jeep and Hummer will take you to some of the desert's most pristine expanses. Along the way, your colorful guide will share interesting facts about the desert's fascinating ecosystem, geology and cultural history (as well as a tall tale or two!). Kick up the excitement a notch on an after-dark tour, where you'll use high-tech, night-vision goggles to spot desert wildlife.

Number Seven

GO SUP-ING OR KAYAKING ON THE VERDE

The southern portion of the Verde River, near its confluence with the Salt River, is a popular spot for stand-up paddle boarding, kayaking, birding or photography. The Verde's peaceful waters and lush riparian areas make it a great spot to relax and enjoy the beauty of the Sonoran Desert.

Number Eight

RAFT THE SALT RIVER

The Salt River east of Scottsdale offers two unique rafting options. The serene Lower Salt River is perfect for a calm-water float trip that promises views of towering cliffs and desert wildlife, including the famous Salt River wild horses. Ready for more? The wild-child Upper Salt offers seasonal whitewater rafting thrills on class III and IV rapids with such colorful names as “Maytag,” “Overboard” and “Mescal Falls.”

Number Nine

BIKE THE MCDOWELLS

Scottsdale is ringed by mountains whose rolling foothills are crisscrossed with trails that range from easy to expert. You can rent quality bikes and gear from local outfitters for a solo adventure or join a guided half- or full-day tour.

Number Ten

CONQUER PINNACLE PEAK

Get your heart pumping as you traverse steep switchbacks to the summit of this iconic north Scottsdale peak. From the summit of Pinnacle Peak, you'll be rewarded with stunning views of Scottsdale's saguaro-studded landscape and massive granite rock formations. 🌵

Public Art

AFTER DARK

By JoAnne Zeterberg

As a kid, I was fascinated by things that glowed – twinkly holiday lights, my Lite-Brite screen with its boldly colored pegs, the moon. Fast-forward to today and not much has changed. I'm still enchanted by beautiful things that light up the night. If you are too, don't miss these Scottsdale Public Art installations that are magnificent any time of day, but take on an extra-special glow after dark.

DIAMOND BLOOM

You'll find this gem by artist Curtis Pittman nestled by the southern exterior wall of Western Spirit: Scottsdale's Museum of the West. During the day, Diamond Bloom's brass panels and dichroic glass fins reflect the sun and cast multi-hued shadows, but at night this dynamic sculpture boasts colored lights that produce a striking purple and yellow glimmer reminiscent of the beautiful desert botanicals that were its inspiration.

ONE-EYED JACK

Standing 26 feet high, One-Eyed Jack is a painted steel jackrabbit sculpture by artist John Randall Nelson. The 20,000-pound sculpture stands on the corner of Marshall Way and Indian School Road, welcoming residents and visitors to the art galleries, shops, and restaurants in Old Town Scottsdale's Arts District. Like Lewis Carroll's fictional white rabbit, the sculpture beckons us to make the leap into Old Town Scottsdale.

It's fun – and free – to explore Scottsdale's public art! Learn more at ScottsdalePublicArt.org.

TRIBUTARY WALL

The gently undulating structure on the west side of Goldwater Boulevard, just north of the Arizona Canal, is more than a simple sound-abatement wall. Tributary Wall by artist Kevin Berry features several steel fish, ranging in size from 9 to 18 feet long. At night, red and yellow lights make the fish glow with luminous color. Park across the street in the public garage and take a nighttime stroll along the sidewalk to see the fish up close.

ASPIRE

Located in the center of the first arterial and first multi-lane roundabout in Scottsdale near the Scottsdale Airpark, Aspire reflects the human aspiration for flight. The human-like figures can be seen in two ways: as one man in varied stop-motion poses lifting off into flight, or as three men standing upon each other's shoulders with the top one soaring. The intent of this "flying dream" concept is to uplift and inspire the spirit.

IMPULSION

Jeff Zischke's 24-foot-tall Impulsion at WestWorld of Scottsdale is captivating in any light. But to truly appreciate this equestrian sculpture, formed from stainless-steel tubing, you must see it at night. That's when LEDs mounted at the base of the elegant horse begin to shine and reflect off the stainless-steel structure, encapsulating the entire sculpture in a pinkish-purple glow.

CANAL CONVERGENCE

Every November, public artworks sparkle at night along the Scottsdale Waterfront and throughout Old Town during Canal Convergence. Several large-scale, light-based installations are featured, many of which are interactive and give you the opportunity to immerse yourself in art.

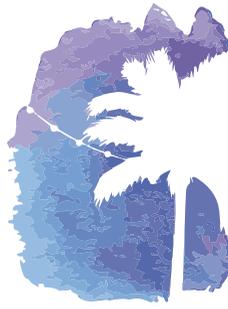

FAST FACT

Each of Water Mark's nine equine gargoyle strikes a different pose!

WATER MARK

Water Mark, by Laura Haddad and Tom Drugan, graces the Indian Bend Wash Greenbelt (Scottsdale's innovative flood-control channel). During times of flash flooding, water pours from the mouths of these 14-foot-high aluminum equine gargoyles. At night, the sculptures are subtly lit with blue lights on the east side and yellow lights on the west side, representing water and the sun. Find these magnificent sculptures on the north side of Indian Bend Road east of Scottsdale Road. 🌿

A few miles north of Old Town, you'll find two open-air shopping destinations that are perfectly suited for Scottsdale's sun-drenched lifestyle. The retail roster at Kierland Commons, a lively Main Street-style center, is filled with favorites like Johnny Was, Sundance and White House|Black Market, as well as newcomer Tecovas, which carries high-quality handmade boots. You can even configure your dream car at Tesla! And if you want to grab a bite, Kierland Commons is home to more than a dozen restaurants dishing up everything from contemporary Latin cuisine at The Mission and bruschetta boards at Postino WineCafé to casual comfort food at Cheesecake Factory.

Just across Scottsdale Road, Scottsdale Quarter serves up a 28-acre shopping experience. Standout stores here include Free People, Kendra Scott, Lululemon Athletica, West Elm and a new Amazon Books. During the warmer months, you'll find parents sipping an iced chai from Press Coffee while the kiddos play in the Quarter's splash pad, located on the central quad. And when you're ready to put down your shopping bags and take a break, the Quarter serves up a wide range of culinary options, including Sol Cocina, Obon Sushi Bar & Ramen, Dominick's Steakhouse and recent addition, Culinary Dropout. 🌿

EAT LIKE A LOCAL

Top 10 Places for Your FAVORITE FOODS

BY JOANNE ZETERBERG

What are you hungry for? It's a simple question that can lead you down a rabbit hole of options, particularly in a city as rich in culinary concepts as Scottsdale. So, let us lend a hand! Here are our picks for great places to find your favorite foods, from pizza and tacos to steak and sweets. And if you just can't resist that rabbit hole, more recommendations are just a click away!

TACOS: Barrio Queen

Old Town's Barrio Queen has been one of the city's top taco spots since its inception. The Queen's menu boasts 25 mix-and-match taco options, ranging from the Nopalitos, made with tender sautéed cactus, to the succulent Cochinita Pibil – juicy pork marinated in sour orange and achiote paste and slow-roasted to perfection. Pair your tacos with a crock of guacamole (prepared tableside, of course!) and you have a delicious – and Instagram-worthy – meal!

BARRIO QUEEN

MAPLE & ASH

STEAK: Maple & Ash

The chefs at Maple & Ash, located on the Scottsdale Waterfront in Old Town, believe that steaks cooked over a live wood fire just taste better – we couldn't agree more. Menu must-tries include the mouth-watering Wagyu filet mignon and dry-aged tomahawk, both from the Butcher's Reserve list. Be sure to add a black truffle loaded potato and some fire-crisped shishito peppers on the side. For dessert, the Sundae Service BYO ice cream sundae is a fun treat for the whole table.

BOOZY BRUNCH: Hash Kitchen

At Hash Kitchen, the Bloody Mary becomes a meal. Literally. Their build-your-own Bloody Mary bar features more than 40 delicious craft toppings, including fried ravioli, mozzarella sticks, garlic stuffed olives, bacon and many more. It's easy – just pick an infused vodka (bacon is always a favorite), choose between four house Mary mixes, and top it off with whatever your “bloody” heart desires. And if you're still hungry, Hash's menu of breakfast entrées features delights like Herb Fried Chicken Hash, Banana Split Brioche French Toast and Hangover Short Rib Hash.

 Click for more boozy brunches

PIZZA: Craft 64

When it comes to great pies, Craft 64 gets our nod – both for their scratch-made pizzas and their stellar offerings of local craft brews. This cozy Old Town joint offers a neighborhood vibe, complete with a dog-friendly patio out front and a larger shaded patio out back. All their pies are cooked in a pecan wood-fueled Italian oven and include creative specials like ham and brie or Spanish chorizo and harissa. But my favorite is the Aji, topped with house-smoked fennel sausage, hand-pulled mozzarella, ricotta, onions and baby spinach. The secret is the spicy aji sauce, made from Arizona jalapeños, fresh lemon juice, organic garlic, olive oil, cracked pepper and sea salt.

CRAFT 64

SUSHI ROKU

SUSHI: Sushi Roku

Part of Sushi Roku's allure is the über-chic scene at the W Scottsdale Hotel, but it's the list of fresh fish that keeps sushi lovers coming back time and time again. If a roll is what you're craving, your options are many, but I recommend either the Tuna Jalapeño (spicy tuna and avocado topped with tuna sashimi, yuzu olive oil and cilantro) or the White Lotus (popcorn shrimp tempura and avocado adorned with crispy onions and wasabi truffle soy sauce). And if members of your group lean more "turf" than "surf," Sushi Roku also dishes up delicious prime ribeye, tender filet mignon and teriyaki-glazed Jidori chicken.

VEGAN EATS: Tocaya Organica

"Live Without Compromise" is the motto at this new Scottsdale hot spot, and boy, do they deliver! Not only do they have a vegan filter on their website that makes it insanely easy to eat guilt-free, but the chef recommends a specific plant-based protein for each dish. Highlights include the "Guiltless" Burrito stuffed with a rainbow's worth of veggies, Street Corn en Fuego Bowl with cilantro lime rice, and Shredded Kale and Quinoa Salad. Combine your entrée with Tocaya's cheery décor and a Watermelon Agua Fresca drink, and you can't help but leave feeling happy and refreshed.

TOCAYA ORGANICA

PRIX-FIXE DINING: Sel

Sel is a jewel of a restaurant nestled amid the art galleries of Old Town Scottsdale. With a focus on sophisticated global fare presented in a comfortably elegant space, chef Brandon Levine creates a new four-course Chef's Tasting Menu every few weeks according to what is in season. On any given day, his menu may include delights like Tempura Squash Blossom with lemon ricotta caponata, King Crab Scampi with squid ink capellini, and Ora King Salmon with a white balsamic glaze. A craft cocktail or selection from Sel's carefully curated wine list makes the perfect pairing.

SWEET REPUBLIC

HAPPY HOUR NOSHES: ZuZu

Happy hour is more fun when surrounded by mid-century swank at ZuZu. Located inside the famed Hotel Valley Ho, ZuZu puts forth a modest-but-mighty happy hour menu that includes upscale delicacies like Short Rib Tater Tots with red pepper and horseradish aioli, Hot Chicken & Biscuits with local honey and pickles, and the quarter-pound HH Burger – all for just $5 each, as are a selection of cocktails, wines and beer.

THE MISSION

CHURROS: The Mission

Let's hear three cheers for churros! If you're a fan of these traditional Latin American treats, you'll swoon over The Mission's espresso churros. Served eight to an order, these coffee-laden delights are fried and then tossed in cinnamon and brown sugar while still warm. And as if that's not enough sweet, yummy goodness, they're accompanied by an Ibarra chocolate milkshake made with local Sweet Republic vanilla gelato. Is the shake for drinking or dipping? You choose! Either way, The Mission's churros are downright craveable.

PLACES TO SATISFY A SWEET TOOTH: Sweet Republic

Sweet Republic took the Scottsdale ice cream scene by storm when it opened in 2008 and its cult-like following continues to grow. All their ice creams and vegan sorbets are handcrafted in small batches using 100% natural ingredients. They even make all their own cones, toppings and sauces in-house. The rotating menu features at least 20 flavors, including options like Honey Lavender, Salted Butter Caramel and Choco Walnut Oatmeal Cookies. 🌿

PICTURE-PERFECT patios

BY MARILYN HAWKES

Dining al fresco has its own inherent charms, but Scottsdale elevates the experience with breathtaking Sonoran Desert vistas, enchanting art displays and crackling adobe fireplaces set against the grandeur of Camelback Mountain. Here are some of our favorite spots for embracing the great outdoors while you dine.

LON'S

The intimate patio at LON's at The Hermosa Inn (left) provides the perfect backdrop for a romantic dinner under the stars. Enjoy a handcrafted cocktail at a candlelit table next to the crackling adobe fireplace. Order from the chef's tasting menu of Arizona-inspired global cuisine or choose from the "classics" menu, which includes wood-fired meats and seafood. No matter which menu you choose, an expert sommelier is always on hand to recommend the perfect wine pairings.

AZ88

AZ88 (above) is best known for its signature filled-to-the-rim martinis, unusual contemporary art displays (think a Christmas tree made of Barbie dolls), lively atmosphere and sleek patio overlooking leafy Scottsdale Civic Center Park. Adjacent to Scottsdale Center for the Arts and Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art, AZ88's patio is the perfect setting to sip a frosty craft beer, order a burger with waffle fries and snag a front-row seat to some of Scottsdale's best people-watching.

TALAVERA

For the ultimate al fresco dining experience, Talavera at the Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale (below) offers breathtaking views of nearby Pinnacle Peak, dramatic desert sunsets and distant glimmering city lights. The menu at this contemporary Spanish steakhouse features a feast of tapas, paella, charcuterie, seafood and beef dishes. After dinner, indulge in a slice of spicy, dark chocolate Diablo Cake with Licor 43 marmalade, then relax with an after-dinner drink surrounded by the enchanting solitude of the desert.

OLD TOWN TORTILLA FACTORY

Housed in a 75-year-old adobe home, Old Town Tortilla Factory beckons guests with a 1,400-square-foot patio shaded by 100-year-old pecan trees, as well as a diverse menu of Southwestern- and Sonoran-inspired fare. Adorned with twinkle lights, the flagstone patio boasts a fire-topped fountain and a bar featuring more than 120 premium tequilas. Visit the climate-controlled patio year-round – misted in the summer and heated in the winter – and be sure to sample the fresh, house-made tortillas.

sake, Camelback Mountain. Even an indoor seat won't disappoint, with floor-to-ceiling windows and sleek, contemporary décor.

EL CHORRO

Built in 1934 as a girls' school, El Chorro (below) occupies one of the most beautiful spots in the Valley of the Sun. Nestled between rugged Camelback and Mummy mountains, this rustic restaurant features classic dinner fare from fried chicken to filet mignon, but it's most famous for its brown sugar–glazed sticky buns. A seat on the lushly landscaped patio for dinner or Sunday brunch promises spectacular mountain views and stunning Southwestern sunsets. 🌵

LINCOLN, A JW STEAKHOUSE

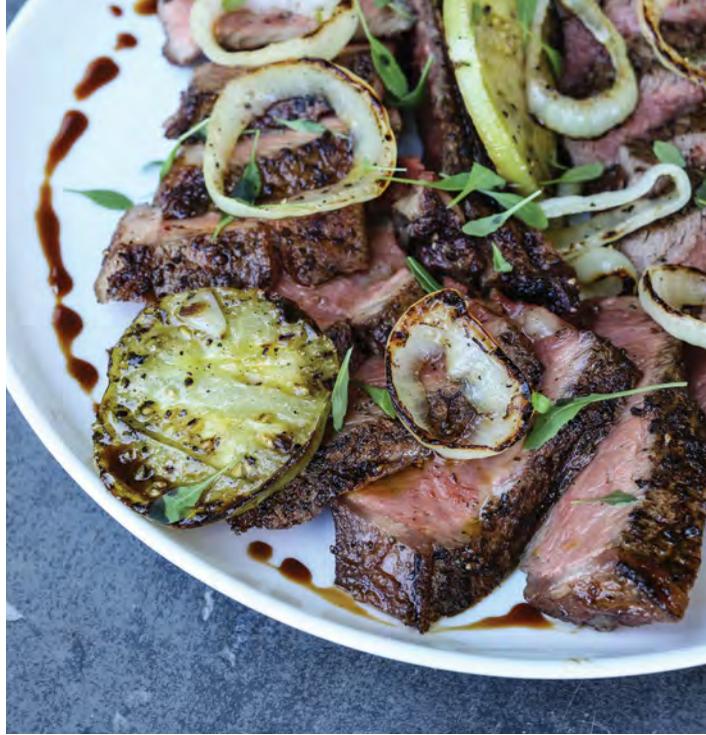

Lincoln (top), nestled in the heart of Paradise Valley at the JW Marriott Camelback Inn, serves up steakhouse classics like Wagyu butcher's steaks, sustainably sourced market fish and a variety of gourmet vegetarian dishes, including cauliflower steak. NIGHTLIFE

PARTY AFTER DARK

TOP 10 IDEAS FOR A Night on the Town

BY JOANNE ZETERBERG

The beauty of a night out in Scottsdale is that it can be as lively or laid-back as you'd like. From see-and-be-seen nightclubs and come-as-you-are bars to bowling, bull riding and golf (yup, even at night), Scottsdale's nightlife scene is as wildly individual as you are! Here are 10 suggestions for a fun night on the town.

Number One

HIGH-TECH BOWLING

These are not your grandpa's bowling alleys. Old Town's Skylanes is a second-story, boutique bowling club offering six digitally enhanced lanes, high-energy music and a jumbo LED wall, as well as killer cocktails and a late-night bites menu to keep you fueled. Over at Mavrix (above), get your game on with 22 lanes, including private VIP lanes that feature Spark augmented-reality bowling and a private bar. Mavrix also offers laser tag, billiards and arcade games to keep the fun going long after the last strike. skylanesaz.com / mavrix.com

Number Two

PEDAL PARTY

If you're partying with a group of friends, reserve the 15-passenger Arizona Party Bike for an Old Town pub crawl. The Party Bike features a rockin' sound system and LED party lights, and it can even carry a cooler with adult beverages for your ride – just in case you get thirsty in between bar stops. arizonapartybike.com

*Number ThreeDJS & BOTTLE SERVICE

Looking for deejays and VIP bottle service? Head for Old Town Scottsdale's Entertainment District! First stop, the W Scottsdale's swanky Shade Lounge for champagne and a glamorous crowd. At El Hefe, you can dance on confetti-covered tables and partake in shots from whistle-blowing bartenders. And at Riot House, the breezy South Beach vibes combine with DJs and an extensive bottle service menu for an unforgettable night out. wscottsdalehotel.com / elhefe.com / riohousescottsdale.com

*Number FourSING ALONG

Ready to unleash your inner superstar with a night of no-holds-barred karaoke? Head for Old Town's Geisha A Go Go (above)! It's the perfect spot for a night out with friends, offering private rooms for small squads of six to groups up to 20. The sushi bar and cocktail program are as on-point as their pop and rock 'n' roll song list, making Geisha a karaoke local legend. When you're ready for a bigger audience, check out The Grapevine, which features hosted karaoke sessions every night of the week! geishaagogo.com / grapevineaz.com

*Number FiveBULL RIDING

Kick up your heels – you're in the West, after all! Cave Creek's Buffalo Chip Saloon amps up the excitement with amateur and pro bull riding Wednesday and Friday evenings, as well as live music and free dance lessons throughout the week. Order s'mores to cook over an outdoor fire and soak up the Western ambiance. buffalochipsaloon.com

Number Six

URBAN COWBOYS

More of an urban cowboy or cowgirl? Old Town Scottsdale's Rusty Spur Saloon, the city's oldest cowboy bar, is a cozy establishment offering live music daily from midday to midnight, with the added bonus of free line-dancing lessons a few times a week. You also can try out your two-step at Handlebar J Restaurant & Saloon, where the Herndon Brothers Band takes the stage and free dance lessons are offered on select evenings.

rustyspursaloon.com / handlebarj.com

Number Seven

OLD TOWN WINE & ALE TRAILS

Get your evening started with a taste of the local terroir. Old Town Scottsdale is home to tasting rooms from several of the state's finest wineries and craft breweries, as well as wine- and beer-forward restaurants. Most offer tasting flights so you can try a variety of vintages and brews. Download your free wine and ale trail maps here.

Number Eight

TAKE A DIVE (BAR, THAT IS)

Open since 1959, Coach House is a favorite among locals and visitors alike. This cozy dive bar boasts a few inside tables as well as a long community bar table on the patio. If you're in town over the holidays, the Coach House is a must-see for its extravagant display of Christmas lights that covers almost every square inch of the place. coachhousescottsdale.com

Number Nine

GET YOUR GAME ON

Feeling lucky? Head for the Casino at Talking Stick Resort. The state-of-the-art gaming floor offers more than 700 of the latest slot machines, including those in the high-limit room that offer denominations up to $25. If cards are your game of choice, you'll enjoy more than 50 table games, including Blackjack, Three Card Poker and Let It Ride. The Casino also is home to the largest poker room in the state, which features games like Texas Hold 'Em, Omaha and 7-Card Stud. talkingstickresort.com

Number Ten

SWING A CLUB

Topgolf is a brilliant reinvention of the driving range. This sports entertainment venue is open until midnight daily and offers three bars, a restaurant, non-golf games (think billiards, shuffleboard and Xbox) and three levels of cushy, climate-controlled golf bays. Grab some friends, reserve one of the couch-lined bays and choose from more than a dozen golf games that use micro-chipped balls and color-coded targets ranging in distance from 25 to 215 yards. Best of all, no golf experience is required! topgolf.com 🍷

TERMINAL 3 UPGRADES

In early 2020, Sky Harbor completed a $590 million modernization of Terminal 3, which is named after late Arizona Senator John S. McCain. The multi-year renovation project added new North and South concourses, public art installations, dozens of shops and restaurants, a state-of-the-art Delta Sky Club and the PHX Play-Viation children’s play area.

PPE VENDING MACHINES

Need PPE? Vending machines in all Sky Harbor terminals offer individual and bulk packaged face masks (disposable, KN95 and cloth options), as well as 2-ounce and 4-ounce hand sanitizers, hand sanitizer wipes, nitrile gloves and all-in-one hygiene kits.

DID YOU KNOW:

- Sky Harbor took the top spot in JD Power’s 2020 North American Airport Satisfaction Study. The study evaluates criteria such as terminal facilities, security checks, arrivals/departures, and food, beverage and retail options that reflect the city’s lifestyle and environment.
- You can convert cash to a card for easy use during your flight at machines located in all terminals.
- More than 400 friendly volunteer Navigators wearing purple jackets help guide travelers through the airport, some accompanied by tail-wagging therapy dogs!
- On select days, local artists take the stage and play live music on the Traveling Tunes music stages in terminals 3 and 4.
- Sky Harbor offers rotating exhibits by local artists in terminals 3 and 4. 🌟
