YOUR INSIDER'S GUIDE TO THE BEST OF SCOTTSDALE'S VIBRANT DOWNTOWN

SCOTTSDALE
ARIZONA

Take one look at Old Town Scottsdale and it's easy to see what makes the heart of our city so original. Nestled within nine walkable neighborhoods you'll find a unique collection of shops, restaurants, galleries and nightclubs, as well as contemporary public art installations and historic sites from the late 1880s. It's this effortless blend of chic urban amenities and Western charm that gives Old Town its one-of-a-kind flair and makes it a can't-miss stop on any Scottsdale itinerary.

THE DISTRICTS

Old Town Scottsdale is the energetic heart of our city. In a little more than one square mile, you can explore nine easily walkable districts filled with art galleries, shops, restaurants, museums and nightclubs.

FIFTH AVENUE SHOPPING DISTRICT

This long-time local favorite boasts unique shops, award-winning restaurants and the famous Bob Parks Horse Fountain.

SCOTTSDALE CIVIC CENTER

The park's 21 acres of lush lawns and public art also house the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art and Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts.

ARTS DISTRICT

Fine art galleries, wine-tasting rooms, Scottsdale's Museum of the West, the Scottsdale Artists' School and the Thursday night ArtWalk all call this district home.

ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT

The laidback daytime energy of this district explodes after dark, with celebrity deejays, live bands and master mixologists showing off their talents at upscale nightclubs and bars. There's even a swanky boutique bowling club offering craft cocktails and bottle service.

BROWN & STETSON DISTRICT

This mixed-use district houses restaurants, bars and numerous hair salons, which may come in handy if you're planning a night on the town in the Entertainment District. For breakfast after a night on the town, stop by Morning Squeeze for omelets, flapjacks, protein shakes and more.

SCOTTSDALE FASHION SQUARE

The largest shopping destination in the Southwest, Scottsdale Fashion Square is home to more than 200 premium retailers, a Harkins luxury cinema and multiple restaurants.

SCOTTSDALE WATERFRONT & SOUTHBRIDGE DISTRICTS

These districts on the banks of the Arizona Canal, house some of the city's most popular restaurants, boutiques and public art installations. The Scottsdale Waterfront also hosts annual special events like Canal Convergence and Scottsdazzle.

HISTORIC OLD TOWN

This historic corner of Old Town is fun and funky, with a decidedly Old West Flair. Western-wear boutiques, Native American jewelry and historic sites like the Little Red Schoolhouse and Old Adobe Mission are a few of the treasures you'll find here.

HISTORIC SITES

STEP BACK IN TIME

George Cavalliere opened Scottsdale's first blacksmith shop "out on the edge of town" in 1909. In 1920, he replaced the original tin structure with an adobe building that still stands in its original location today. Although the shop is closed, you can feel the history as you pass by the old adobe walls.

Northeast corner of Brown Ave. and Second St.

KICK UP YOUR HEELS

Renowned as Scottsdale's last real cowboy saloon, the Rusty Spur serves up live music and dancing seven days and nights a week courtesy of the Psychobilly Rodeo Band and a posse of other talented musicians. This Scottsdale landmark resides in the same building that housed Scottsdale's first bank in 1921 (today, the old vault holds liquor instead of money!).

BELLY UP TO THE BAR

Located in a historic building that housed Scottsdale's first post office from 1929 to 1949, Porters greets you with brick walls, crystal chandeliers, friendly staff and craft cocktails like the Sonoran Sunset and Postmaster. Not sure you're in the right place? Look for General, a stately, life-size model horse who keeps watch from Porters' second-floor balcony.

PUBLIC ART

“JACK KNIFE”

“Jack Knife” was renowned Arizona artist Ed Mell’s first large-scale sculpture. The bronze stands more than eight feet tall on its base and was modeled after Scottsdale’s official City seal, a rider astride a bucking horse.

Artist: Ed Mell

Location: Roundabout at Marshall Way and Main Street

“KNIGHT RISE”

This “skyspace” installation by Arizona-based artist James Turrell frames the sky as pure color and showcases its changing light. Sharp edges around the elliptical opening create the illusion that the sky is descending upon the space. The illusion created by this structure is most dramatic at sunrise and sunset.

Artist: James Turrell

Location: Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art

“BRONZE HORSE FOUNTAIN”

Created by artist and gallery owner Bob Parks, this fountain features five champion Arabian horses rearing from the waters. The horses were modeled after horse breeder Tom Chauncey’s award-winning Arabians.

Artist: Bob Parks

Location: Roundabout at Fifth Avenue and Marshall Way

SOLERI BRIDGE & PLAZA

Designed by the late Italian architect Paolo Soleri, the bridge demonstrates the importance of solar movement and features two steel-clad, 64-foot-high pylons that create a shaft of light, marking the time of day. This is the first of Soleri’s imaginative bridge designs to have been commissioned and built.

Artist: Paolo Soleri

Location: Southwest corner of Scottsdale and Camelback roads

“THE YEARLINGS”

This monument to wild horses has become an icon of the free spirit of the American West and depicts three bronze yearlings galloping in full stride. (Note: “The Yearlings” is temporarily off exhibit until early 2023)

Artist: George-Ann Tognoni
Location: Main Street at the entrance to Civic Center Park

“ONE-EYED JACK”

Inspired by tales of the legendary desert “jackalope,” this 26-foot-tall painted sculpture hopped into Old Town in Sept. 2018. It is particularly striking at night when lit with a soft LED glow.

Artist: John Randall Nelson
Location: Northwest corner of Indian School Rd. and Marshall Way

“THE DOORS”

What would it be like to stand inside a kaleidoscope? Find out when you venture inside this monumental work created from three 28-foot-tall, mirror-polished stainless steel panels and L.E.D. lights.

Artists: Donald Lipsky
Location: Southwest corner of Scottsdale and Camelback Roads

“LOVE”

Conceived when the United States was consumed by the Vietnam War, Robert Indiana’s “Love” sculptures became a symbol for peace. The sculpture is a favorite spot for taking pictures with the one you love. (Note: “LOVE” is temporarily off exhibit until early 2023)

Artist: Robert Indiana
Location: Scottsdale Civic Center Park

“PASSING THE LEGACY”

This Hashknife Pony Express Commemorative Monument depicts a vintage Pony Express rider and a contemporary Hashknife Pony Express rider handing off the mail at full gallop, representing the Old West meeting the New West.

Artist: Herb Mignery
Location: Marshall Way cul-de-sac, just south of Camelback Road on the north bank of the Arizona Canal
