SCOTTSDALE: A PLACE FOR ALL

Cotton-candy sunsets. Starry desert skies. Towering saguaro cacti. At Experience Scottsdale, we want everyone to witness the wonders of Scottsdale's Sonoran Desert and experience our unique blend of luxury, relaxation and adventure.

That's why, in recent years, both Experience Scottsdale and the City of Scottsdale have taken intentional steps to ensure everyone feels welcome here.

Scottsdale is, after all, a place for all. The city is home to people of all races, sexual orientations, gender identities, religious beliefs, abilities, ages, backgrounds and experiences. They include our employees, colleagues, neighbors, family members and friends.

Experience Scottsdale is proud to celebrate the diversity of our community members and businesses. Here, you'll support restaurants, bars, shops, spas and art galleries owned and operated by people who identify as women, people of color and LGBTQ+. You'll explore trails through the stunning McDowell Sonoran Preserve that are ADA accessible. You'll tour attractions and institutions that honor the region's Native American and Mexican ties like Western Spirit: Scottsdale's Museum of the West, the Old Adobe Mission and the Heard Museum. And you'll attend annual events like the Arizona Indian Festival, the Scottsdale Juneteenth Celebration and Scottsdale Dia de los Muertos.

It's important that all people not only feel welcome here, but also feel safe. Scottsdale's anti-discrimination ordinance prohibits discrimination in employment, housing, places of public accommodation, and city services, programs and activities.

At Experience Scottsdale, our team has undergone diversity, equity and inclusion training and expanded our partnerships to include One Community, the Arizona Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Wheel the World and IGLTA.

Scottsdale is a place for all, and we at Experience Scottsdale hope you'll soon discover all that Scottsdale has to offer.

More information on our efforts in this space can be found at ExperienceScottsdale.com/Community.

9 GREAT WAYS TO Get Outdoors

Scottsdale's lush Sonoran Desert setting and 330 days of annual sunshine make any day a great day for outdoor exploration and adventure. Whether you're looking for a laid-back guided excursion or something a little – or a lot – more thrilling, Scottsdale has you covered with these options for exploring our sun-drenched desert landscape.

FLY HIGH

In a landscape as panoramic as the Sonoran Desert, there's no better way to soak it all in than from the gondola of a hot air balloon. Drift along with the breeze as your pilot guides you high into the air for expansive scenic views or dips close to the ground for a glimpse of wildlife. Your flight concludes with a champagne toast amid the towering saguaros.

STROLL THE GARDEN

The Desert Botanical Garden is home to five thematic trails and more than 50,000 desert plants. Get acquainted with the fascinating Sonoran Desert plant life, from towering cacti and alluring succulents to brilliant wildflowers and lacy shade trees. Plan to enjoy lunch or dinner at the Garden's on-site restaurant, Gertrude's.

GO OFF-ROAD

A Jeep or Hummer tour with an experienced guide is a great way to learn about the Sonoran Desert's fascinating history, geology and delicate ecosystem. Want to kick up the adventure quotient? Get behind the wheel of your own Tomcar, ATV or UTV for an exhilarating ride down rugged desert trails.

SADDLE UP

Unleash your inner cowpoke on a guided horseback ride. From your vantage point tall in the saddle, you'll enjoy stunning Sonoran Desert views as you ride through rolling mountain foothills and verdant desert washes. Beginning and experienced riders alike will enjoy this classic taste of the Old West.

MAKE A SPLASH

You may be surprised that an easy 60-minute drive from Old Town Scottsdale gives you access to eight beautiful lakes and rivers. Take in the desert scenery from the water on a guided rafting, kayaking or SUP adventure as you keep your eyes on the shoreline, where you might spot javelina, eagles and majestic wild horses.

PEDAL AROUND

Biking is a great (and green!) way to explore Scottsdale. The city boasts miles of designated bike lanes and paved paths along the Indian Bend Wash Greenbelt for urban cycling, as well as hundreds of shared-use trails in the McDowell Sonoran Preserve for mountain biking.

DINE IN THE DESERT

For a once-in-a-lifetime dining experience, Cloth & Flame offers immersive al fresco dinners in some of the region's most pristine expanses. Enjoy a cocktail hour, passed hors d'oeuvres and a multi-course farm-to-table dinner among the saguaros under a starry desert sky.

ADMIRE ARCHITECTURE

For the most unique experience yet, explore a UNESCO World Heritage site and learn about Frank Lloyd Wright's philosophies on blending nature and architecture. Taliesin West's Shelters in the Desert guided tour takes you along verdant desert pathways to view dwellings built by apprentices of Wright's architectural school.

8 GREAT ARIZONA EXCURSIONS FROM SCOTTSDALE

MONUMENT VALLEY NAVAJO TRIBAL PARK

You'll find a bounty of natural wonders, quirky towns and historic landmarks throughout Arizona – most of which you can explore on an easy day or overnight trip from Scottsdale. Let's hit the road!

ROUTE 66

Drive Time: Varies by route

We couldn't start an article about road trips without mentioning America's Mother Road, Route 66. A 158-mile swath of this legendary track spans northern Arizona and is studded with colorful Americana. Get your kicks with the burros in Oatman. Swing into the Sno-Cap Drive-in for a burger, fries, Oreo milkshake and punny jokes from the servers. Grab a selfie standin' on the corner in Winslow, Arizona (yes, just like the song). Route 66 celebrates its centennial in 2026, so make plans now to join the fun!

TOMBSTONE

Drive Time (each way): 3 hrs., 10 min.

Tombstone, "The Town Too Tough to Die," is home to the infamous O.K. Corral, where daily reenactments of the gunfight between the Earp brothers and the Clantons and McLaurys thrill visitors. Other Tombstone highlights include the Bird Cage Theatre, Boothill Graveyard and the Rose Tree Inn Museum.

discovertombstone.com

MONUMENT VALLEY NAVAJO TRIBAL PARK

Drive Time (each way): 5 hrs., 20 min.

Monument Valley's colorful sandstone buttes can be explored on guided tours or a 17-mile self-guided drive, which takes you past iconic monuments like The Mittens, John Ford's Point and Three Sisters. On your drive up from Scottsdale, plan a stop at the Navajo Interactive Museum in Tuba City, where displays approximate the journey Navajos take through life. Travel tip: Since this is a longer drive, plan an extra day and tuck in for the night at historic Goulding's Lodge or The View Hotel Monument Valley.

discovernavajo.com

GRAND CANYON NATIONAL PARK Drive Time (each way): 3 hrs., 45 min.

The Grand Canyon is one of the world's most famous natural landmarks, and nothing can prepare you for its size or the intensity of its colors. Explore the South Rim, where the Canyon's breathtaking combination of geologic color and erosional formations is on full display. nps.gov/grca

SEDONA & JEROME

Drive Time (each way): 2 hrs., 15 min.

Part artists' community, part New Age spiritual center and part outdoor adventurer's dream, Sedona boasts a stunning red-rock landscape, off-road adventures, energy vortex tours and outstanding dining, shopping and cultural experiences. If you have time, add a detour to nearby Jerome. Once a copper mining town, this hilly enclave perched atop Cleopatra Hill is now a thriving artists' community filled with galleries, craft shops, restaurants and wine-tasting rooms. visitsedona.com / jeromechamber.com

PRESCOTT

Drive Time (each way): 2 hrs.

Once Arizona's territorial capital, Prescott is a small town with a grand history. Go kayaking at the Granite Dells, browse the Sharlot Hall Museum and enjoy shopping, dining and live music on Whiskey Row. And if you decide to spend the night, check out the historic Hassayampa Inn, where guests and employees have reported encounters with a gentle, heartbroken ghost named Faith. experienceprescott.com

KARTCHNER CAVERNS

Drive Time (each way): 3 hrs., 13 min.

Kartchner Caverns is one of the world's only "living" caves open to the public. Daily tours showcase breathtaking underground formations like Kubla Kahn, the largest column formation in Arizona.

azstateparks.com/kartchner

BISBEE (right)

Drive Time (each way): 3 hrs., 22 min.

Must-sees in this historic copper mining boomtown include the Queen Mine Tour, Bisbee Mining & Historical Museum, Copper Queen Hotel, and a selection of restaurants, bars, shops and galleries.

Get Around Town!

Whether you're looking for an elevated option for getting your customers from one place to the next or a fun way for them to see the sights around town, we've got you covered with six traditional and non-traditional ways to get around Scottsdale.

RIDE. SMILE. REPEAT.

That's the slogan for Rydables, battery-powered carts designed like a variety of colorful characters from elephants and cows to piñatas and smiling saguaros. Let Kactus Jock take you on a fun-filled adventure to learn about the history of Old Town Scottsdale and explore restaurants, shops and public art along the way.

RENT AN E-BIKE

At Old Town's Pedego Scottsdale or Magnum E Bikes, rent battery powered bikes that let you do as much – or as little – pedaling as you like while you explore the local galleries, restaurants, shops and museums. Over at Rides N Motion, you can rent electric bikes, Evolve all-terrain skateboards and two-wheeled Phat electric scooters.

TOUR ON A GOLF CART

JoyRidesAZ Scottsdale Tours provides golf cart transportation in Old Town and beyond, as well as a variety of guided experiences ranging from wine tasting and culinary adventures to gelato tours and an introduction to Old Town's best Instagram walls. And if you like a good mystery, Puzzle Rides combines the fun of a treasure hunt with the challenge of an escape room on their 75-minute escapades through Old Town.

PEDAL & PARTY

The Arizona Party Bike is a 15-passenger merrymaking machine that cruises around Old Town on pedal power (yours), making stops at three popular local bars and pubs. The bike comes complete with a rockin' sound system, LED party lights and a motor assist – just in case you're having too much fun to pedal.

"LEAN" INTO FUN

For the most excitement you can have standing up, try a Segway tour! It might take a few minutes to master the lean – the movement that makes these two-wheeled fun machines go – but anyone can do it under the guidance of Scottsdale Segway Tours' guides. They'll have you rolling through Old Town in no time at all.

LET THE PROS DRIVE

Scottsdale's ground transportation providers offer luxury sedan, limousine and motorcoach transportation throughout the city. In addition to airport pick-up and point-to-point transportation, they're also the perfect choice for pub crawls, wine tours and nights on the town. You can even try out Waymo's autonomous vehicles around town! See listings on pg. 160

Sustainable Scottsdale

PRESERVING OUR RESOURCES FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

You probably know Scottsdale for its big-ticket highlights, like sunshine, nightlife, food and art. But the city is quickly gaining notoriety for its sustainability efforts. Natural challenges come with being a desert city, and Scottsdale has been tackling them head-on – here's how.

LAND PRESERVATION

Scottsdale has set aside more than 30,500 acres of natural Sonoran Desert, protecting them forever within the McDowell Sonoran Preserve. The Preserve accounts for about one-third of the city's land area and offers 230+ miles of shared-use trails.

WATER CONSERVATION

By definition, deserts have limited water. Thanks to its Reclaimed Water Distribution System, Scottsdale cleans 20 million gallons of used water daily and delivers it to sports fields and golf courses for irrigation to keep them playable. The city also has established usage rules to curb consumption, including prohibiting grass in the front yards of new single-family homes.

HEAT MITIGATION

Scottsdale's Heat Mitigation Plan includes three primary goals: 1) To plant more trees along walkways, providing shade and a more comfortable experience for walkers, runners, and bikers; 2) To decrease paved areas that retain and give off heat overnight; and 3) Provide and improve shade structures around the city, including bus stops and other public areas.

GREEN BUILDINGS

Scottsdale's Green Building Program requires new commercial and residential developments to meet lofty international green standards. Buildings must pursue heat mitigation, use high-efficiency lighting and recycled building materials, provide EV charging, and meet a list of other sustainability requirements to become more energy- and water-efficient.

WASTE NOT

Scottsdale's Waste Not rescues fresh, perishable food from more than 100 donors in the local area and delivers it to more than 75 nonprofits in need. Their partners include events, restaurants, caterers, hotels and other businesses. These food donations help save resources like water, money and time, and prevent food waste from contributing to global warming. Waste Not food donation partners include Fairmont Scottsdale Princess, Hotel Valley Ho, M Culinary, Westin Kierland Resort & Spa and financial supporters like Waste Management, title sponsor of the WM Phoenix Open.

BLUE ZONES SCOTTSDALE

Scottsdale is going blue thanks to a new community-led well-being initiative called the Blue Zones Project, which aims to increase happiness, vitality and longevity throughout the city.

Around the world, blue zone areas are cultures where people live measurably longer, happier lives with lower rates of chronic diseases and a high quality of life.

These cultures all share certain traits that can be grouped into four categories:

MOVE

Homes, communities and workplaces are designed to nudge people into enjoyable physical movement such as walking, biking and gardening.

RIGHT OUTLOOK

Individuals know and can articulate their sense of purpose and make time in their day for periods of calm reflection.

CONNECT

People surround themselves with friends and loved ones who make them happy and support healthy behaviors.

EAT WISELY

Individuals use time-honored strategies for healthier eating habits, including predominantly plant-based diets and using smaller plates to eat less.

Scottsdale's Blue Zones Project has an extensive blueprint for well-being improvement strategies that it will be rolling out, including efforts in the areas of individual engagement, civic and non-profit organizations, schools, worksites and more. With Blue Zones, Scottsdale is well on its way to creating a stronger, healthier and even more vibrant community.

What's New

Scottsdale has never been content to rest on its laurels, and the past year has seen several exciting new businesses come online. Here's a handful of the newest ways to stay, play, shop and dine in Scottsdale!

SHOP

SCOTTSDALE FASHION SQUARE

The Southwest's largest shopping destination continues to amp up the luxury experience with a variety of renovations and new offerings. Renovations to the Nordstrom wing include plush furnishings, a multi-lane valet and a dramatic new "meeting point," a backlit stone column set next to a soothing water feature. Fashion Square also welcomed several new in-demand retailers to its roster, including Blue Nile, Maje, Princess Polly, True Classic and Vuori. And to satisfy hungry shoppers, the highly anticipated restaurant Éléphante debuted in late 2024, featuring the spirit and cuisine of coastal southern Italy.

KIERLAND COMMONS

In North Scottsdale, Kierland Commons recently added four first-to-market retailers to its already impressive roster. Guests can now browse for stylish performance clothing for men at Mizzen+Main, get outfitted for their favorite sport at Wilson Sporting Goods, find a great night's sleep at Saatva Luxury Mattress and check out the latest electric vehicles at Rivian. And for those combining business with their Scottsdale stay, Industrious shared workspace offers on-demand booking for day passes and conference rooms.

SCOTTSDALE QUARTER

Open-air shopping at this North Scottsdale center reached new heights with the recent addition of retailers Ariat, Jenni Kayne, Williams Sonoma, Hammer Made and Pandora. Enjoy a sweet treat from the new Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams while you browse or stop by Sweet Paris Crêperie & Café for a taste of France in the form of sweet or savory crêpes, paninis, fresh salads and more.

STAY

THE SCOTTSDALE RESORT & SPA, CURIO COLLECTION RESORT BY HILTON

This central-Scottsdale resort recently completed a $40 million property-wide renovation that included refurbishing all guest rooms and public spaces, including Luna Spa. In addition, the resort debuted four new dining concepts: La Fogata, serving modern Sonoran cuisine with global influences; The Madam, a cozy, hidden speakeasy specializing in classic cocktails and elevated small bites; The Social Boardroom, an inviting space that includes board games and a golf simulator to enjoy alongside pub favorites like sliders and wings; and Barnaby's Café & Wine Bar, a grab-and-go-style coffee and lunch spot. The resort offers 18 meeting spaces with 45,000 square feet of flexible interior space and 40,000 square feet of beautiful outdoor space.

GRAND HYATT SCOTTSDALE RESORT

On the heels of a $115 million property-wide renovation, the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale Resort & Spa was unveiled in October 2024 as Arizona's first Grand Hyatt property. The resort's reimagined guest rooms and suites offer décor that celebrates the interplay of light, water and desert botanicals while offering breathtaking McDowell Mountain vistas. Other highlights include the expansion of the Arizona Ballroom to 24,000 square feet, four new dining concepts spearheaded by chef Richard Blais, upgrades to the 10-acre destination pool complex, and a refreshed Spa Avania, which specializes in wellness experiences choreographed to the science of time.

CAESARS REPUBLIC SCOTTSDALE, A HILTON HOTEL

This highly anticipated addition to Old Town Scottsdale's hotel roster debuted in 2024 adjacent to Scottsdale Fashion Square and offers 265 guestrooms and 10,000 square feet of indoor meeting space. Elegant accommodations are complemented by two restaurants by chef Giada De Laurentiis: Luna by Giada and Pronto by Giada. Both reflect the chef's Roman heritage and showcase her passion for traditional Italian cuisine with California and Mediterranean influences. One of the hotel's most notable amenities is the seventh-floor rooftop pool, which hosts activities such as yoga classes and champagne tastings.

DINE

UCHI SCOTTSDALE

Founded by award-winning chef Tyson Cole, Uchi, meaning “house” in Japanese, extends the intimacy of the sushi bar throughout the entire restaurant. The one-of-a-kind menu features non-traditional Japanese cuisine, signature tastings, sushi and a seasonal omakase. Look forward to delights like Wagyu Carpaccio with fried jalapeño, masu crudo (ocean trout, oat milk tom kha and Japanese sweet potato) and craft cocktails like the Shiso Mojito.

BEGINNER'S LUCK

This new concept from local chef Bernie Kantak dishes up elevated comfort food favorites in the heart of Old Town. The brunch, midday and dinner menus include delights like the Lucky 7 Cereal Bowl (chia pudding, blue corn grits, berries and coconut-pecan granola), Kantak's Original Chopped Salad, and the coffee-charred Steak Fritz – 12 ounces of prime certified angus NY strip with Hungarian goat horn chile butter, pomme “fritz” and paprikash sour cream.

LA FOGATA KITCHEN & BAR

La Fogata Kitchen & Bar arrived as part of The Scottsdale Resort & Spa's $40 million makeover. The dining room, anchored by a wood-fire grill, or the patio overlooking the lush McCormick Ranch Golf Club greens set the stage for a menu melding modern Sonoran cuisine with global influences. Menu highlights include meatballs bathed in mole, scallops and Meat and Potatoes, featuring gnocchi, braised oxtail and black truffle cheese.

THE FRYBREAD LOUNGE

To sample authentic flavors of the Southwest, head for The Frybread Lounge, Old Town's first and only Indigenous-owned restaurant. Chef Darryl Montana, an O'odham Community member, offers an elevated menu of appetizers and entrées inspired by local Indigenous communities. Specialties include classic fry bread (both sweet and savory options), bison asada tacos, Three Sisters Salad and sweet treats like a caramel sunflower tart.

Discover more exciting dining options on pgs. 150-154.

PLAY

LANE PARK

Great food and exciting games converge at Lane Park in Old Town! Order up a craft cocktail and some savory bites like the Italian frybread tacos, street corn ribs or the Fryfecta (house-made fries seasoned three ways with sauce pairings), then try your hand at duckpin bowling, axe throwing, shuffleboard, Carrom or, in the cooler seasons, curling.

WALK N ABOUT SCOTTSDALE

Guests can now join former Scottsdale Mayor Sam Campana for a walking tour of historic Old Town! This 90-minute tour includes information on the area's history, Native American roots and its foundation as an arts community. As you meander the streets and visit museums, stores and galleries, you'll have plenty of opportunities to shop for the perfect memento of your Scottsdale trip.

LOS MILICS VINEYARDS TASTING ROOM

There's even more to love along Old Town Scottsdale's Wine Trail with the opening of Los Milics Vineyards' chic new tasting room. This intimate wine bar offers Los Milics Vineyards' award-winning wine by the flight, glass or bottle, accompanied by tasty small bites. Denise Rosales

Native Art Market and The Frybread Lounge are the realization of a lifelong dream for Denise Rosales, who wanted to create a space for Native American artisans to present their crafts, stories and food. Native Art Market is Old Town's first and only Indigenous woman-owned shop that features authentic hand-made arts, crafts and jewelry by more than 300 Native American artists, as well as weekly events that include tribal dance performances and Sip 'N Shop experiences. SCOTTSDALE History on Display

If you'd like to get a glimpse into Scottsdale's colorful past, this easy, self-guided stroll will introduce you to three historic Old Town landmarks and museums. The tour can be accomplished in about an hour, and all admissions are free.

SCOTTSDALE HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Start your tour at the Little Red Schoolhouse near the western entrance to Scottsdale Civic Center, just east of Brown Ave.

The Little Red Schoolhouse was constructed in 1909 and over the years has served as a school, social hall and polling place, and it housed the Scottsdale Chamber of Commerce prior to becoming the Scottsdale Historical Museum. The museum chronicles the city's history through photos, artifacts and changing displays.

OLD ADOBE MISSION

Scottsdale's first Catholic church was constructed of handmade adobe bricks in 1933 and features beautiful Spanish Colonial Revival architecture and handcrafted stained-glass windows. Highlights inside include the Sacristy mosaic, historical photos and a statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

After touring the Mission, cross Brown Ave. and turn left. The Parada del Sol Rodeo Museum is just ahead on your right.

OLD TOWN SCOTTSDALE PARADA DEL SOL RODEO MUSEUM

Explore Scottsdale's rich rodeo history through artifacts like ropes, saddles, historical photos and original event posters. The museum, which is housed in the historic Noriega Livery building, also includes "The Stable," a large-scale mural by Joel Coplin that depicts horses being fed in their stalls.

Memorable events call for inspired settings. Luckily, Scottsdale has more than 60 unique special-event venues from which to choose, including these 10 stand-out locations.

SCOTTSDALE MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY ART

Located in the heart of Old Town, the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art (SMoCA) is known for its unique design and architecture, as well as its cutting-edge exhibitions. The SMoCA building, an ingenious renovation of a former movie theater by acclaimed architect Will Bruder, houses a variety of rotating art exhibitions and “Knight Rise,” a James Turrell Skyspace installation. SMoCA can accommodate groups up to 250 for a cocktail reception and 75 for a banquet.

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT'S TALIESIN WEST

Breathtaking sunsets, Sonoran Desert vistas and the innovative architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright create a memorable backdrop for events at Taliesin West, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. From scenic outdoor venues to Wright’s dynamic Music Pavilion, Taliesin West offers a variety of stunning settings for al fresco dinners, receptions and gatherings for up to 350 guests.

WESTERN SPIRIT: SCOTTSDALE'S MUSEUM OF THE WEST

This Smithsonian Affiliate museum offers groups of 25 to 500 an exceptional environment that showcases the beauty, history and spirit of the American West. Western Spirit's well-appointed spaces include the main auditorium and Heritage Hall, as well as outdoor ramadas, terraces and sculpture courtyards.

LOS CEDROS USA

Modeled after an authentic Moroccan citadel, Los Cedros is a premier breeding and training facility for some of the finest show horses in the country. From the exotic "throne room" to the spacious center courtyard, the entire facility is open to your group, giving them the rare opportunity to interact with the beautiful championship horses that call Los Cedros home. Los Cedros can accommodate groups from 10 to 1,000 guests.

EL CHORRO

Camelback Mountain vistas, historic buildings and classic, Southwestern-inspired cuisine – including their world-famous sticky buns – are the hallmarks of this renowned Paradise Valley restaurant. For groups looking to enjoy beautiful weather and a stunning natural backdrop, El Chorro offers a variety of outdoor spaces like the Lower Patio, an intimate, woodsy setting with seating for 32, and the 6,500-square-foot Event Lawn, which can seat up to 350.

THE FIELDHOUSE AT SCOTTSDALE STADIUM

For events that hit a home run every time, head for Scottsdale Stadium in the heart of Old Town. The stadium offers a variety of event spaces headlined by the 10,000-square-foot Fieldhouse, which includes outdoor pre-function space and capacity for up to 900 reception-style or 450 seated. Other venues include The Lodge, a multi-level outdoor space, and for a truly memorable small-group event, the new First Base Line Entertainment Area.

DESERT FOOTHILLS EVENTS

Scottsdale's breathtaking Sonoran Desert, with its Technicolor sunsets and starry nighttime skies, provides an unforgettable backdrop for long-table gourmet dinners, cowboy cookouts, weddings and more at Desert Foothills Events. The facility boasts three spacious outdoor areas, the 10,000-square-foot Barn and Barn Patio, and ample space for groups up to 1,500.

HEARD MUSEUM

Explore Native American art and culture with an event at the Heard Museum. Graceful Spanish Colonial architecture, shaded courtyards and gardens, and tranquil fountains create an elegant and charming setting for outdoor receptions, banquets and weddings for up to 2,460 guests. Indoor spaces range from the 4,500-square-foot Steele Auditorium to the more intimate 960-square-foot Encanto Room. The Heard also can arrange for talented Native American singers, dancers and artisans to ensure a truly memorable event.

PHOENIX ZOO – ARIZONA CENTER FOR NATURE CONSERVATION

Nestled in the red-rock buttes of Papago Park, the Phoenix Zoo boasts more than 15 distinct indoor and outdoor venues. Or meet in upscale, climate-controlled comfort at the Stone House Pavilion. The Phoenix Zoo can comfortably host 1,000 for a seated banquet and up to 5,000 for a reception.

HOST YOUR PRIVATE EVENT AT FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT'S TALIESIN WEST

CREATE AN UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE AT TALIESIN WEST

Frank Lloyd Wright, one of the most influential architects in the 20th century, had a career spanning more than 70 years and produced such iconic buildings as Fallingwater and the Guggenheim Museum. His designs forever influenced our relationship with architecture and our idea of how to live in balance with nature.

More than 80 years ago, Wright designed and built Taliesin West, his home and studio, in the foothills of the McDowell Mountains of Scottsdale, Arizona. Now a National Historical Landmark and UNESCO World Heritage site, Taliesin West is home to the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation and a vibrant, unique setting for your private event, photoshoot, brand experience, or corporate retreat.
