

THE IMPORTANCE OF TOURISM PROMOTION

Founded in 1987, Experience Scottsdale is responsible for enhancing the local community by promoting the Scottsdale area as a luxury destination for meetings, events and leisure travel. We serve hundreds of tourism-related businesses in the community and elevate Scottsdale's brand with potential visitors around the world.

Scottsdale's tourism industry is essential to our city's economic growth and vitality, making the community a dynamic and vibrant place to live and work.

Through a variety of marketing, public relations and sales tactics, Experience Scottsdale brings highly sought-after visitor dollars to our city.

Scottsdale's 11 MILLION annual visitors generate $3 BILLION in economic impact.

Visitor-paid tax dollars account for 23% of total privilege tax collections.

Every dollar invested in Experience Scottsdale directly generates $37 in visitor spending.

Without visitor-paid tax revenue generated by Experience Scottsdale, each household would pay $307 more in annual taxes to maintain the same level of services.

THE ROLE OF DESTINATION CHAMPIONS

Like any product, travel destinations are brands that require investment to remain relevant, attractive and competitive. Destination Champions are corporate supporters and business leaders whose partnerships with Experience Scottsdale help fund important initiatives that result in:

- Strengthening the economy
- Creating demand for new amenities
- Elevating the city's reputation
- Driving new customers
- Attracting and retaining talent
- Spurring additional air service

My team leverages Scottsdale's brand as we strive to attract, retain and grow investment in the community. And because of Experience Scottsdale, that brand is globally renowned. Their promotions showcase Scottsdale's unique livability and beauty, opening the door for future economic development opportunities that welcome new business and talent to the city.

-Rob Millar, City of Scottsdale Economic Development Director
