THE impossible beauty OF THE DESERT

By Roger Naylor
I’M HIKING IN AN IMPOSSIBLE PLACE, ONE THAT SHOULDN’T EXIST.
I’m walking across desert that should have vanished years ago. Yet instead of traffic noises, I hear a chorus of birdsong. Mighty saguaros rise overhead, not buildings. My views of hard-boned mountains marching toward the horizon are unobstructed. Cactus and stone, sky and cliffs are all I see.

Welcome to Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve — the city’s utterly impossible and truly unforgettable backyard.

GRASSROOTS BEGINNINGS
Many cities pay lip service to quality-of-life issues. Some even go so far as to carve out a few strategic buffers of open space. The epic scale of what Scottsdale set aside, however, is virtually unprecedented.

It began with a few passionate activists. They formed the McDowell Sonoran Conservancy and fought to protect the mountains and desert of North Scottsdale, most of which was private land ripe for development. The grassroots effort expanded, political leaders got on board, and Scottsdale residents voted not once but twice in favor of a sales tax increase to raise money to purchase land. The result is the largest urban preserve in the United States, a crown jewel of city planning and a reminder that just a few determined people can make a difference.

LAND OF IMPOSSIBLE BEAUTY
Visitors to the Preserve – which spans more than 30,500 acres and totals a full one-third of Scottsdale’s land area – will discover soaring mountains, boulder-crowned mesas, storm-carved arroyos and cacti as tall as office buildings. More than 225 miles of shared-use trails, departing from multiple trailheads, delve into the outback, exposing the scenic wonders of a rugged frontier.

Although it’s a single connected land area, the Preserve can be broken into two distinct regions. The southern half consists of the McDowell Mountain Range and is served by three major trailheads: Lost Dog in the south, Gateway in the middle and Tom’s Thumb on the north side.

The northern half of the Preserve is flatter, a landscape of rolling desert hills, but is marked by five standalone mountains: Cone, Brown’s, Cholla, Granite and Fraesfield.
The primary trailheads in the north region are Brown’s Ranch, Fraesfield and Granite Mountain.

I fall more in love with this wild desert each time I go. Recently, I spent a weekend hiking in the McDowell Sonoran Preserve. Here are a few of my favorite moments.

• As soon as I set foot on the Ringtail Trail, I noticed I was walking through the densest grove of teddy bear cholla I’d ever seen. Growing like little hobbit-sized trees, the teddy bear is a sly, insidious cactus. The plant bristles with such a proliferation of spines it appears fuzzy, yet each thorny pad breaks off at a whisper of movement. So prone to latch on to anyone who gets close, they’re often called “jumping cholla.” Yet they can be absolutely dazzling, catching the sweet light at dawn and dusk and radiating a shimmering aura from their golden spines.

• While pausing at the saddle on Gateway Loop to enjoy expansive views, I was suddenly serenaded by a mournful melody of coyote yips. I stood alone in the desert listening to the call of coyotes. Much to my surprise, I understood what they were saying. Because some days we all miss the moon.

• Stopping to read the signs along the stunning Marcus Landslide Trail, I began to comprehend the massive, mountain-peeling avalanche of rock that took place here a half-million years ago. And then to walk among the clutter of boulders that compose the landslide and see the mile-long path they traveled in this quiet corner of desert is incredibly poignant. I’m fascinated by the geological forces that shape this land, which would make every science teacher I ever had palm-slap their foreheads since I slept like an astronaut in deep-space stasis through their classes.

• Descending from Sunrise Peak, I was dazzled at the opposite end of the spectrum by a sunset. It was one of those complex, lavish and scandalous affairs. The sun goes down in Arizona like everywhere else, but it does not go quietly. This was a fiesta of explosive color and reckless light. Columns of clouds went up in flames. All around me mountaintops turned purple, saguaros arose like lean shadow giants and a golden light flooded the land. Amid this bloody revolution, a feeling of utter serenity descended. Despite the chaos, it is a peaceful, quiet time. The day was done but it ended with a wild flourish. I’m grateful I got to see such an impossible sight from this impossible place.

If you go: Access to Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve is free, and trails are open daily from sunrise to sunset. For trailhead locations, maps, trail descriptions and a calendar of events, visit mcdowellsonoran.org or scottsdaleaz.gov/preserve.

Sky Harbor was named “2019 Best Large Airport in the U.S.” by Wall Street Journal.

PHOENIX SKY HARBOR INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

“America’s Friendliest Airport”

There’s always something new and exciting happening at Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport, the main facility serving the Scottsdale area. Here are just a few ways Sky Harbor is working to make your travels to and from Scottsdale smoother than ever!

TERMINAL 3 UPGRADES

In early 2020, Sky Harbor completed a $590 million modernization of Terminal 3, which is named after late Arizona Senator John S. McCain. The multi-year renovation project added new North and South concourses, public art installations, dozens of shops and restaurants, a state-of-the-art Delta Sky Club and the PHX Play-Viation children’s play area.

PPE VENDING MACHINES

Need PPE? Vending machines in all Sky Harbor terminals offer individual and bulk packaged face masks (disposable, KN95 and cloth options), as well as 2-ounce and 4-ounce hand sanitizers, hand sanitizer wipes, nitrile gloves and all-in-one hygiene kits.

DID YOU KNOW:

• Sky Harbor took the top spot in JD Power’s 2020 North American Airport Satisfaction Study. The study evaluates criteria such as terminal facilities, security checks, arrivals/departures, and food, beverage and retail options that reflect the city’s lifestyle and environment.

• You can convert cash to a card for easy use during your flight at machines located in all terminals.

• More than 400 friendly volunteer Navigators wearing purple jackets help guide travelers through the airport, some accompanied by tail-wagging therapy dogs!

• On select days, local artists take the stage and play live music on the Traveling Tunes music stages in terminals 3 and 4.

• Sky Harbor offers rotating exhibits by local artists in terminals 3 and 4. 🎨

HOTELS & RESORTS

STAY IN STYLE
TOP 10 DESERT Developments

Planners have their pick of world-class venues in Scottsdale. Here, expansions, renovations and new properties are giving us plenty to brag about—and meeting planners plenty of choices to work with.

HOTEL VALLEY HO (above)
Nestled behind an inconspicuous door inside signature restaurant ZuZu is Hotel Valley Ho’s newest breakout space, The Rosie Room. This hidden gem offers up a chic, 350-square-foot mid-century backdrop for meetings or private dining — accommodating up to 16 seated guests or 24 attendees for reception-style fêtes. Planning to impress with a high-stakes presentation? Take full advantage of a state-of-the-art plug-in sound system and 65-inch TV, and then up the ante with your choice of spread from ZuZu’s seasonal, foodie-focused menu.

HILTON SCOTTSDALE RESORT & VILLAS
Wrapping up a multimillion-dollar renovation in summer 2019, Hilton Scottsdale Resort & Villas breathed fresh life into its lobby, guest rooms and suites with an upgraded and contemporary overhaul. Meeting spaces also are enhanced with new wall coverings and fresh coats of paint.

THE PHOENICIAN
Marking the completion of the resort’s multimillion-dollar, three-year renovation is the opening of The Phoenician Tavern. This lively enclave is a local favorite and an ideal host for group gatherings, thanks to its sprawling and multifunctional space, which features an expanded bar and enhanced pub grub menu of gourmet burgers and classic tavern fare. And though The Phoenician Spa technically opened in 2018, it continues to impress, most recently making waves by being named Scottsdale’s only Forbes Five-Star Spa.

FAIRMONT SCOTTSDALE PRINCESS (right)
Soft and tranquil Sonoran Desert décor with clean, modern lines and furnishings — that’s the fresh vibe you’ll find in all of Fairmont Scottsdale Princess’ renovated 458 guest rooms and 20 luxury suites. Rooms now boast modernized bathrooms of sleek, polished stone and oversized walk-in showers, as well as cool and convenient technology like an Amazon Echo Dot loaded with an “Ask The Princess” menu for quick answers to your FAQs. Meanwhile, at the Princess Pool, a newly expanded deck increases lounge seating and brings eight new cabanas with natural-feel synthetic turf, as well as a party-sized whirlpool, reinvigorated waterside bar and eatery, and sweeping views of TPC Scottsdale and the McDowell Mountains.
SCOTTSDALE STADIUM
New on deck at Scottsdale Stadium is The Fieldhouse, a 10,000-square-foot venue with floor-to-ceiling windows, outdoor patio and an incredibly versatile floor plan that accommodates up to 450 seated attendees or 900 guests for reception-style events. Scottsdale Stadium also is home to The Lodge, a multi-level space with an open floor plan and sweeping views of the outfield, as well as venues like The Banyan Room, popular for panoramic vistas of Old Town Scottsdale and Camelback Mountain, and The Press Room for meetings and workshops.

WESTIN KIERLAND RESORT & SPA
The Westin Kierland Resort & Spa transformed each one of its 732 guest rooms – including 55 suites – into a contemporary Southwestern eco-luxury aesthetic. Paying homage to Arizona’s mining history with flashes of metals and sand textures, rooms also highlight a desert color palette that’s punctuated by neutral hues, inlaid wood patterns and sun-baked fabrics that are handcrafted by regional artisans. Even the accent wall coverings are a celebration of the Grand Canyon State and are designed to mimic Arizona’s famous brilliant sunsets.
W SCOTTSDALE HOTEL
W Scottsdale Hotel’s property-wide renovation left no stone unturned, adding a new Away Spa concept with seven treatment rooms, co-ed lounge and bonus code-accessible “Secret Menu,” while also completely redoing its popular Welcome reception area and Living Room Lounge. Suites and guest rooms feature a cleaner, more streamlined design, while the property’s longtime showpiece, its rooftop WET Deck — the largest pool deck in the entire W Hotels portfolio — is reimagined with all-new cabanas, a bar and an open-air restaurant, Red Sun Lounge, which is an outdoor extension of the famed Sushi Roku and can be converted into a private event space.

SANCTUARY ON CAMELBACK MOUNTAIN RESORT & SPA
This posh resort perched atop Camelback Mountain recently unveiled refreshments to its private villa collection. Perfect for small corporate retreats or VIP board meetings, the resort’s eight private villas include amenities like private pools and jacuzzis, spacious wraparound terraces, home theaters, and breathtaking city and mountain views.

THE RITZ-CARLTON, PARADISE VALLEY
Opening in 2021, The Ritz-Carlton, Paradise Valley – a 215-room, 20-acre new build – will have it all: spectacular views of Camelback Mountain, sleek interiors, 20,000 square feet of meeting and event space, a full-service spa and a location just minutes from Old Town Scottsdale. The resort also will incorporate high-tech safety measures, including a Plasma Air ionizer system in every guest room and common space.

CAESARS REPUBLIC SCOTTSDALE
Opening in early 2022 adjacent to Scottsdale Fashion Square in Old Town, Caesars Republic Scottsdale is set to encompass 265 rooms, including five luxury entertainment suites, as well as a 7,000-square-foot ballroom, lobby bar, signature restaurant, and rooftop pool and bar.

The AAA Four-Diamond Hermosa Inn is a jewel of a hideaway in the heart of Paradise Valley, just minutes from Scottsdale. Originally hand-crafted in the 1930s by cowboy artist Alonzo “Lon” Megargee as his private residence, the Inn’s adobe architecture has kept its Old-Arizona character and charm. All 43 casitas are surrounded by spectacular landscaping and beautiful desert vistas. Guests also will enjoy artful American cuisine at LON’s and warm Western hospitality at The Last Drop Bar.

The Scott is a vibrant, Mission-style boutique resort in the heart of Old Town Scottsdale. Bringing together the colors and comforts of old Havana, the culture and soul of New Orleans and the elegant geometry of the Bauhaus, the resort is a lush oasis in the middle of the Sonoran Desert. A recent $15 million reinvention included upgrades to the lobby, guest rooms, and Canal Club restaurant and bar.

TOP 10
Sonoran Desert Inspired SPA TREATMENTS

The curative properties of Sonoran Desert botanicals have been celebrated for centuries. Soothe your mind, body and soul with one of these innovative treatments that blend indigenous ingredients and traditional Native American healing techniques with modern-day indulgences.

BY KELLY TRIPLETT
Number One

ADOBE CLAY PURIFICATION TREATMENT

Inspired by ancient Native American healing rituals, this treatment from The Spa at Camelback Inn exfoliates, nourishes and detoxifies the skin and body. To begin, an aromatic conditioner is massaged into the hair and scalp. Next, pure adobe clay is applied to the body to relax muscles and draw out impurities. A shower with Southwestern-inspired soap and a cactus fiber cloth removes the clay and is followed by an application of warmed juniper and sage oils. camelbackspa.com

Number Two

JOJOBA & PRICKLY PEAR BODY POLISH

This luscious treatment at The Spa at Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale at Troon North uncovers your skin’s natural glow and is rich in jojoba and plant antioxidants. Prickly pear sugar scrub is applied and then rinsed under a Vichy shower. The treatment continues with a loofah-applied prickly pear body wash and concludes with a nourishing finish of prickly pear and jojoba body butter. fourseasons.com/scottsdale

Number Three

AGAVE BODY GLOW

Banish dry skin and show your glow with this full-body polish at Agave, the Arizona Spa at The Westin Kierland Resort. Your treatment begins with a gentle exfoliation using a polish infused with citrus essential oils and jojoba beads. An application of rich body cream lightly scented with neroli and orange blossom seals in moisture and nourishes your skin. marriott.com/phxws

Number Four

HAVASUPAI FALLS REJUVENATION

This Southwestern experience at Well & Being at the Fairmont Scottsdale Princess starts with a sage smudging to cleanse your energy, followed by a scrub with essential oil–infused desert salts. Your journey continues with a rain shower rinse and a thermal mineral magnesium soak. Afterward, a massage with jojoba body butter prepares your skin for warm Himalayan salt stones. A Sedona clay mask is applied to your face, followed by a scalp massage and an herbal wrap. Finish with a facial moisturizer to regenerate skin. scottsdaleprincess.com
SPAS & WELLNESS

Number Five
SPIRIT OF THE DESERT
Inspired by CIVANA’s medicine wheel garden, this treatment uses warm Pima cotton poultices filled with herbs to facilitate renewed feelings of vitality and balance. Rhythmic strokes with the herb-laced sachets, combined with a soothing massage of warm vibrational oils, are applied along your body’s energy pathways. Absorb the healing power of the desert in this close-to-nature experience. civanacarefree.com

Number Seven
DESERT BLISS

GOLF
HIT THE GREENS
Golf is hard. But that’s exactly what makes it so beguiling, whether you’re a veteran golfer looking to get better or a beginner just experiencing the thrill of hitting a straight shot or making a long putt for the first time. Either way, if you’re on the course that means you’re outdoors in a green space, likely with friends, and having a few laughs along the way. No matter how you play, a bad day at the golf course usually beats a good day in the office. Fortunately, Scottsdale has plenty of course options for both experienced and beginning golfers.

5 COURSES FOR EXPERIENCED GOLFERS

TPC SCOTTSDALE STADIUM COURSE
If you really want to test your game, then head to where the world’s best golfers have been teeing it up annually since 1987: the TPC Scottsdale Stadium Course, home to the PGA TOUR’s Waste Management Phoenix Open. Normal conditions mean the rough isn’t quite as thick and the greens aren’t quite as slick as they are just before and during tournament week, but one loop around this layout and you will quickly get a much better sense of just how good the pros really are at their job. tpc.com/scottsdale

GRAYHAWK GOLF CLUB
The Tom Fazio-designed Raptor Course hosted a PGA TOUR event back in the late 2000s, and it’s still tough enough that breaking par from the tips is quite an accomplishment. Massive bunkers guard many large greens where three-putts are not uncommon, and the closing par-5 remains one of the Valley’s best. The country’s top college players are scheduled to give the Raptor Course their best shot(s) when it hosts the NCAA Division I Men’s and Women’s Golf Championships in 2021 and 2022. grayhawkgolf.com
TROON NORTH GOLF CLUB
The gold standard for upscale daily-fee golf in Arizona and the Southwest when it debuted in 1990 retains its role as one of the best 36-hole facilities anywhere. Both the Monument and Pinnacle courses are formidable, but the Monument recently underwent a renovation that included all new greens and new bunker sand. You’ll also see the unforgettable course namesake in the middle of the third fairway: a giant boulder that is most definitely in play. troonnorthgolf.com

AK-CHIN SOUTHERN DUNES GOLF CLUB
This U.S. Open sectional qualifying venue and three-time Arizona Amateur host is always ready to take on the best players. Located in the city of Maricopa, the course has plenty of length (7,546 yards from the tips), some strong breezes moving across the desert floor, well-positioned bunkers, and subtle yet tricky greens. Survive all of that and you are more than deserving of one of the delicious and calorific milkshakes made in the clubhouse overlooking the ninth and 18th greens. akchinsoutherndunes.com

SUNRIDGE CANYON
When a course promotes its closing stretch of holes as the “Wicked Six,” you know you are in for a challenge. Such is the case here, where a mostly downhill front nine reverses direction and climbs back upward for the challenging final sixsome of holes, capped off with a par-5 finale that has an elevated green. Wicked indeed. sunridgegolf.com
5 COURSES FOR BEGINNERS

KIERLAND GOLF CLUB
Always in stellar condition, the 27 holes on the Westin Kierland Resort & Spa property were designed by Scott Miller, who generously lined numerous fairways with mounding that often helps direct wayward shots back into play (thank you Mr. Miller). Entrances to most greens are accessible, and forced carries are few. You also have a fleet of vehicles to choose from for transporting yourself and your clubs around the course: a regular golf cart, GolfBoard, GolfBike, TurfRider, and the Ellwee, a single-rider, ATV-type of vehicle. kierlandgolf.com

PAPAGO GOLF COURSE
This municipal course located just east of Sky Harbor International Airport has been welcoming golfers of all skill levels since 1963. The tree-lined fairways are pretty wide, water is in play only on one hole (to the right of the first green), and you get some memorable views of the colorful Papago Buttes right next to the course. Beginners are even invited to tour the facility and learn where everything is before stepping onto the course! papagogolfcourse.net

TALKING STICK GOLF CLUB
While both the North (known as “O’odham”) and South (“Piipaash”) courses at this venue (located right behind Talking Stick Resort & Casino) are fairly straightforward designs by famed architects Bill Coore and Ben Crenshaw, it’s the latter’s layout that may be better suited for those still learning the game. The greens aren’t quite as crowned, and fewer angles come into play on the mostly flat fairways. talkingstickgolfclub.com
THE SHORT COURSE AT MOUNTAIN SHADOWS
Bigger is not always better, especially when it comes to courses for beginning golfers. That’s why the aptly named Short Course at Mountain Shadows, featuring 18 par-3s that range from 50 yards to 150 yards from the forward tees, is a fun option. It’s an easy walk, too, but carts are available. mountainshadows.com

STARFIRE GOLF CLUB
The nine-hole Mulligan Course here is a favorite of locals. With eight par-3s and one par-4, plus five sets of tees on each hole, it usually takes no more than 90 minutes to get around this layout. Plus, it’s conveniently located right off the 101, just north of Old Town Scottsdale. starfiregolf.com

LEGEND:
- LODGING ON SITE
- RESTAURANT
- LOUNGE
There’s no denying that Scottsdale is the world’s best golf destination, as evidenced by the 200-area courses and the awards that keep piling up, including being named the 2018 Golf Course Destination of the Year by the International Association of Golf Tour Operators.

While all the notoriety can certainly mean more expensive greens fees, there are deals to be had year-round – even in peak season. You just have to know where to look.

Here’s the inside scoop on how to save on golf next time you’re in Scottsdale:

SLEEP IN
Many courses cut their greens fees up to 50 percent for late-morning or afternoon tee times. Bonus: You’ll wrap up just in time to hit the 19th hole at the clubhouse bar and catch a spectacular sunset. Here are three to try:

- Silverado Golf Course: Located just minutes from Old Town Scottsdale, Silverado’s par-70, 18-hole course lures golfers of all skill levels with undulating terrain, elevated tee boxes and mid-double-digit afternoon greens fees.

- McDowell Mountain Golf Club: In addition to discounted late-afternoon greens fees, be sure to check out their web specials and combo offerings like “Nine & Dine” and “Back 9 & Breakfast,” which includes a breakfast or lunch entrée in your fee when you dine at the clubhouse’s Mesquite Grille.

- Boulders Club: With afternoon greens fees coming in at around $180, the Boulders Club is well worth the price of admission. The club offers two scenic championship courses that are considered among the most demanding in the Southwest.

BUY IN BULK
As any good Costco shopper knows, discounts come to those who buy in bulk. Get the best bang for your buck with packages that allow you to play multiple rounds on one course or that pair rounds with a hotel stay.

- Stay & Play Packages: Phoenix Scottsdale Golf and Pinnacle Golf Vacations handle every detail of your stay with golf packages that make the game affordable for everyone. Packages include accommodations at a variety of area hotels and rounds of golf based on the number of days booked.

- Bounce-Back Rates: Many Scottsdale golf clubs, including Troon North and We-Ko-Pa, have multiple courses and offer bounce-back rates so you can play the courses for a discounted fee on different days.

PLAY MUNICIPAL COURSES
Golf in Scottsdale never disappoints, even at municipal courses. If you’re on a tight budget, consider teeing off at one of these courses:

• Continental Golf Course: This 18-hole, par-60 executive course weaves its way through scenic Indian Bend Wash.

• Coronado Golf Course: A cash-only facility, the nine-hole Coronado Golf Course is exceptionally popular for its lighted driving range, which is open until 8 p.m. daily and offers “happy hour” pricing on both buckets of balls and beer!

DRIVE A LITTLE

Not only do many courses outside the Scottsdale city limits have fewer golfers, they often have scenic views and lower prices.

• Rancho Manana Golf Club: If 18 holes in one day just aren’t enough on this stunning desert track in nearby Cave Creek, take advantage of their “Same Day Replay” program and repeat your round for just $25.

• Verde River Golf & Social Club: This course underwent a major renovation in 2016 at the hands of Tom Lehman. Adjacent to the Tonto National Forest, the course offers sweeping views of the Mazatzal Mountains.

• Desert Canyon Golf Club: Nestled in neighboring Fountain Hills, Desert Canyon offers views of the town’s signature fountain (one of the tallest in the world!). You’ll also enjoy elevation changes and beautiful views of the Four Peaks mountain range.

PLAY IN THE DESERT
TOP 10 WAYS TO EXPLORE SCOTTSDALE’S Sonoran Desert

Scottsdale’s lush Sonoran Desert is an ideal playground for outdoors enthusiasts. Whether you’re looking for edge-of-your-seat adventures or something a little more low-key, here are 10 great ways to explore the Sonoran Desert. Best of all, there’s no experience required! Just contact one of Scottsdale’s professional outfitters and they’ll help you plan the Sonoran Desert adventure of your dreams!

Number One

SADDLE UP FOR A TRAIL RIDE

Get in touch with your inner cowboy or cowgirl on a guided horseback-riding trek! Beginners to experienced riders are welcome. You will enjoy stunning Sonoran Desert views and the companionship of a gentle horse as you ride through rolling mountain foothills and lush desert washes.
Number Two

FLY HIGH
In a landscape as panoramic as the Sonoran Desert, there’s no better way to soak it all in than on a hot-air balloon flight. You’ll drift along with the breeze as your pilot guides the balloon high into the air for expansive scenic views or dips close to the ground for a glimpse of wildlife and native vegetation. Every ride ends with a champagne toast to commemorate your flight.

Hop into a Tomcar – the ultimate off-road, you-drive-it vehicle – and get ready for a wild desert adventure! These specially designed, military-grade vehicles can cover all types of terrain, including the rockiest desert washes. As you twist and turn along rugged desert paths, you’ll see towering saguaros and maybe even catch a glimpse of wildlife like bald eagles, javelina and wild horses.

Number Four

EXPLORE A LAKE
Just 35 miles northeast of Old Town Scottsdale, Saguaro Lake boasts more than 22 miles of shoreline, secluded coves and plenty of on-the-water fun. At the marina, you can rent a runabout, fishing or pontoon boat, or take a 90-minute cruise on a double-decker paddleboat, the Desert Belle.

Number Five

TAKE A HIKE IN THE MCDOWELL SONORAN PRESERVE
At 30,500 acres and growing, Scottsdale’s McDowell Sonoran Preserve is the largest urban preserve in the nation. Seven trailheads located around the city give you access to more than 225 miles of shared-use paths, from the ADA-accessible Bajada Nature Trail, a half-mile interpretive path, to the challenging Tom’s Thumb summit climb.
Number Six

GO OFF-ROAD (DAY OR NIGHT!)

Guided tours by Jeep and Hummer will take you to some of the desert’s most pristine expanses. Along the way, your colorful guide will share interesting facts about the desert’s fascinating ecosystem, geology and cultural history (as well as a tall tale or two!). Kick up the excitement a notch on an after-dark tour, where you’ll use high-tech, night-vision goggles to spot desert wildlife.
Number Seven

GO SUP-ING OR KAYAKING ON THE VERDE

The southern portion of the Verde River, near its confluence with the Salt River, is a popular spot for stand-up paddle boarding, kayaking, birding or photography. The Verde’s peaceful waters and lush riparian areas make it a great spot to relax and enjoy the beauty of the Sonoran Desert.

Number Eight

RAFT THE SALT RIVER

The Salt River east of Scottsdale offers two unique rafting options. The serene Lower Salt River is perfect for a calm-water float trip that promises views of towering cliffs and desert wildlife, including the famous Salt River wild horses. Ready for more? The wild-child Upper Salt offers seasonal whitewater rafting thrills on class III and IV rapids with such colorful names as “Maytag,” “Overboard” and “Mescal Falls.”

Number Nine

ARTS & CULTURE

FIND YOUR MUSE
Gone are the days when “arts and culture” meant stuffy galleries, austere museums and snooze-worthy stage performances. In Scottsdale, visitors and locals enjoy an arts scene that celebrates creativity in all its forms. So, whether you’re a card-carrying art buff or just looking for a fun way to while away a few hours in Scottsdale, here are our top 10 picks for must-see arts activities.

Number One
MAKE IT AN ARTWALK EVENING
Scottsdale’s free Thursday night ArtWalk takes place from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., but why not make a full evening of it? Start with a leisurely four-course meal at Sel or opt for local brews and wood-fired pizza at Craft 64, both conveniently located in the Arts District. After you stroll the galleries and take in the ArtWalk festivities, head to Second Story Liquor Bar for an artful, handcrafted nightcap. scottsdalegalleries.com

Number Two
SEE FLW’S PRIVATE ART COLLECTION
The Private Collections Tour at Frank Lloyd Wright’s Taliesin West takes you behind the scenes and into the vault for a viewing of selected artworks from the legendary architect’s personal collection. Highlights include Japanese prints, textiles and exceptional books. franklloydwright.org
Number Three
CHECK OUT THESE INTERACTIVE MUSEUMS
Wonderspaces Arizona is a delight for all your senses – not only can you see art, you can touch it, hear it, move it (or move with it) and, in some cases, walk right into it! At Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s Museum of the West, which boasts exquisite exhibitions of Western art, artifacts and memorabilia, you can step into a 3D cowboy campfire scene for a unique photo op. Browse thousands of beautiful instruments from around the world at the Musical Instrument Museum, then stop by the Experience Gallery, where you can explore your own musical abilities! And at the Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art, check out “Knight Rise,” a skyspace installation by James Turrell, that reflects the changing light of the Sonoran Desert sky. scottsdalemuseumwest.org / mim.org / smoca.org

Number Four
EXPERIENCE PUBLIC ART
Scottsdale’s Public Art collection encompasses nearly 100 permanent installations and myriad revolving temporary exhibits. Many of the city’s most recognizable works, like Robert Indiana’s “LOVE” sculpture and Ed Mell’s “Jack Knife,” are within walking distance of one another in pedestrian-friendly Old Town, but you’ll spot magnificent pieces all over the city, even when driving along our freeways! scottsdalepublicart.org

Number Five
TAKE IN A SHOW
Every season, the best artists from Broadway, world music, dance and comedy take to the stage at the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts. Located inside Scottsdale Fashion Square, Desert Stages Theatre features award-winning community theater productions, while ASU Gammage auditorium hosts the best of Broadway, including blockbusters like “Hamilton,” “Wicked” and “The Book of Mormon.” scottsdalearts.org / desertstages.org / asugammage.com

Denotes Old Town Scottsdale location
As a kid, I was fascinated by things that glowed – twinkly holiday lights, my Lite-Brite screen with its boldly colored pegs, the moon. Fast-forward to today and not much has changed. I’m still enchanted by beautiful things that light up the night. If you are too, don’t miss these Scottsdale Public Art installations that are magnificent any time of day, but take on an extra-special glow after dark.

DIAMOND BLOOM
You’ll find this gem by artist Curtis Pittman nestled by the southern exterior wall of Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s Museum of the West. During the day, Diamond Bloom’s brass panels and dichroic glass fins reflect the sun and cast multi-hued shadows, but at night this dynamic sculpture boasts colored lights that produce a striking purple and yellow glimmer reminiscent of the beautiful desert botanicals that were its inspiration.

ONE-EYED JACK
Standing 26 feet high, One-Eyed Jack is a painted steel jackrabbit sculpture by artist John Randall Nelson. The 20,000-pound sculpture stands on the corner of Marshall Way and Indian School Road, welcoming residents and visitors to the art galleries, shops, and restaurants in Old Town Scottsdale’s Arts District. Like Lewis Carroll’s fictional white rabbit, the sculpture beckons us to make the leap into Old Town Scottsdale.

It’s fun – and free – to explore Scottsdale’s public art! Learn more at ScottsdalePublicArt.org.
TRIBUTARY WALL
The gently undulating structure on the west side of Goldwater Boulevard, just north of the Arizona Canal, is more than a simple sound-abatement wall. Tributary Wall by artist Kevin Berry features several steel fish, ranging in size from 9 to 18 feet long. At night, red and yellow lights make the fish glow with luminous color. Park across the street in the public garage and take a nighttime stroll along the sidewalk to see the fish up close.

IMPULSION
Jeff Zischke’s 24-foot-tall Impulsion at WestWorld of Scottsdale is captivating in any light. But to truly appreciate this equestrian sculpture, formed from stainless-steel tubing, you must see it at night. That’s when LEDs mounted at the base of the elegant horse begin to shine and reflect off the stainless-steel structure, encapsulating the entire sculpture in a pinkish-purple glow.

CANAL CONVERGENCE
Every November, public artworks sparkle at night along the Scottsdale Waterfront and throughout Old Town during Canal Convergence. Several large-scale, light-based installations are featured, many of which are interactive and give you the opportunity to immerse yourself in art.

WATER MARK
Water Mark, by Laura Haddad and Tom Drugan, graces the Indian Bend Wash Greenbelt (Scottsdale’s innovative flood-control channel). During times of flash flooding, water pours from the mouths of these 14-foot-high aluminum equine gargoyles. At night, the sculptures are subtly lit with blue lights on the east side and yellow lights on the west side, representing water and the sun. Find these magnificent sculptures on the north side of Indian Bend Road east of Scottsdale Road.

ASPIRE
Located in the center of the first arterial and first multi-lane roundabout in Scottsdale near the Scottsdale Airpark, Aspire reflects the human aspiration for flight. The human-like figures can be seen in two ways: as one man in varied stop-motion poses lifting off into flight, or as three men standing upon each other’s shoulders with the top one soaring. The intent of this “flying dream” concept is to uplift and inspire the spirit.

SCOTTSDALE’S Power Centers

BY JOANNE ZETERBERG

SCOTTSDALE QUARTER
When it comes to shopping on a grand scale, Scottsdale’s trifecta of powerhouse centers doesn’t disappoint. Each one offers the national brands you love, as well as one-off local retailers and top-shelf dining and entertainment options. So put on your walking shoes – we’re going shopping!

Located in Old Town, Scottsdale Fashion Square has the distinction of being the Southwest’s largest retail destination, offering more than 200 boutiques, department stores, restaurants and a luxury cinema – all under one roof in climate-controlled comfort. Top brands beckon at every turn, including Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom and exclusive-to-market retailers such as Prada, Gucci, Bulgari and Salvatore Ferragamo. Not one to rest on its laurels, Scottsdale Fashion Square recently welcomed a variety of new retailers, including Fabletics athletic wear, Golden Goose fine Italian fashions and Amazon 4-Star. When all that shopping works up an appetite, Fashion Square boasts more than 40 choices for satisfying your hunger, including new offerings Ocean 44, Francine, Toca Madera and the highly anticipated Nobu.

A few miles north of Old Town, you’ll find two open-air shopping destinations that are perfectly suited for Scottsdale’s sun-drenched lifestyle. The retail roster at Kierland Commons, a lively Main Street-style center, is filled with favorites like Johnny Was, Sundance and White House|Black Market, as well as newcomer Tecovas, which carries high-quality handmade boots. You can even configure your dream car at Tesla! And if you want to grab a bite, Kierland Commons is home to more than a dozen restaurants dishing up everything from contemporary Latin cuisine at The Mission and bruschetta boards at Postino WineCafé to casual comfort food at Cheesecake Factory.

Just across Scottsdale Road, Scottsdale Quarter serves up a 28-acre shopping experience. Standout stores here include Free People, Kendra Scott, Lululemon Athletica, West Elm and a new Amazon Books. During the warmer months, you’ll find parents sipping an iced chai from Press Coffee while the kiddos play in the Quarter’s splash pad, located on the central quad. And when you’re ready to put down your shopping bags and take a break, the Quarter serves up a wide range of culinary options, including Sol Cocina, Obon Sushi Bar & Ramen, Dominick’s Steakhouse and recent addition, Culinary Dropout.

TACOS: Barrio Queen
Old Town’s Barrio Queen has been one of the city’s top taco spots since its inception. The Queen’s menu boasts 25 mix-and-match taco options, ranging from the Nopalitos, made with tender sautéed cactus, to the succulent Cochinea Pibil – juicy pork marinated in sour orange and achiote paste and slow-roasted to perfection. Pair your tacos with a crock of guacamole (prepared tableside, of course!) and you have a delicious – and Instagram-worthy – meal!

STEAK: Maple & Ash
The chefs at Maple & Ash, located on the Scottsdale Waterfront in Old Town, believe that steaks cooked over a live wood fire just taste better – we couldn’t agree more. Menu must-tries include the mouth-watering Wagyu filet mignon and dry-aged tomahawk, both from the Butcher’s Reserve list. Be sure to add a black truffle loaded potato and some fire-crisped shishito peppers on the side. For dessert, the Sundae Service BYO ice cream sundae is a fun treat for the whole table.

BOOZY BRUNCH: Hash Kitchen
At Hash Kitchen, the Bloody Mary becomes a meal. Literally. Their build-your-own Bloody Mary bar features more than 40 delicious craft toppings, including fried ravioli, mozzarella sticks, garlic stuffed olives, bacon and many more. It’s easy – just pick an infused vodka (bacon is always a favorite), choose between four house Mary mixes, and top it off with whatever your “bloody” heart desires. And if you’re still hungry, Hash’s menu of breakfast entrées features delights like Herb Fried Chicken Hash, Banana Split Brioche French Toast and Hangover Short Rib Hash.

PIZZA: Craft 64
When it comes to great pies, Craft 64 gets our nod – both for their scratch-made pizzas and their stellar offerings of local craft brews. This cozy Old Town joint offers a neighborhood vibe, complete with a dog-friendly patio out front and... a larger shaded patio out back. All their pies are cooked in a pecan wood–fueled Italian oven and include creative specials like ham and brie or Spanish chorizo and harissa. But my favorite is the Aji, topped with house-smoked fennel sausage, hand-pulled mozzarella, ricotta, onions and baby spinach. The secret is the spicy aji sauce, made from Arizona jalapeños, fresh lemon juice, organic garlic, olive oil, cracked pepper and sea salt.

SUSHI: Sushi Roku
Part of Sushi Roku’s allure is the über-chic scene at the W Scottsdale Hotel, but it’s the list of fresh fish that keeps sushi lovers coming back time and time again. If a roll is what you’re craving, your options are many, but I recommend either the Tuna Jalapeño (spicy tuna and avocado topped with tuna sashimi, yuzu olive oil and cilantro) or the White Lotus (popcorn shrimp tempura and avocado adorned with crispy onions and wasabi truffle soy sauce). And if members of your group lean more “turf” than “surf,” Sushi Roku also dishes up delicious prime ribeye, tender filet mignon and teriyaki-glazed Jidori chicken.

VEGAN EATS: Tocaya Organica
“Live Without Compromise” is the motto at this new Scottsdale hot spot, and boy, do they deliver! Not only do they have a vegan filter on their website that makes it insanely easy to eat guilt-free, but the chef recommends a specific plant-based protein for each dish. Highlights include the “Guiltless” Burrito stuffed with a rainbow’s worth of veggies, Street Corn en Fuego Bowl with cilantro lime rice, and Shredded Kale and Quinoa Salad. Combine your entrée with Tocaya’s cheery décor and a Watermelon Agua Fresca drink, and you can’t help but leave feeling happy and refreshed.
HAPPY HOUR NOSHES: ZuZu
Happy hour is more fun when surrounded by mid-century swank at ZuZu. Located inside the famed Hotel Valley Ho, ZuZu puts forth a modest-but-mighty happy hour menu that includes upscale delicacies like Short Rib Tater Tots with red pepper and horseradish aioli, Hot Chicken & Biscuits with local honey and pickles, and the quarter-pound HH Burger – all for just $5 each, as are a selection of cocktails, wines and beer.

CHURROS: The Mission
Let’s hear three cheers for churros! If you’re a fan of these traditional Latin American treats, you’ll swoon over The Mission’s espresso churros. Served eight to an order, these coffee-laden delights are fried and then tossed in cinnamon and brown sugar while still warm. And as if that’s not enough sweet, yummy goodness, they’re accompanied by an Ibarra chocolate milkshake made with local Sweet Republic vanilla gelato. Is the shake for drinking or dipping? You choose! Either way, The Mission’s churros are downright craveable.

PLACES TO SATISFY A SWEET TOOTH: Sweet Republic
Sweet Republic took the Scottsdale ice cream scene by storm when it opened in 2008 and its cult-like following continues to grow. All their ice creams and vegan sorbets are handcrafted in small batches using 100% natural ingredients. They even make all their own cones, toppings and sauces in-house. The rotating menu features at least 20 flavors, including options like Honey Lavender, Salted Butter Caramel and Choco Walnut Oatmeal Cookies.

Dining al fresco has its own inherent charms, but Scottsdale elevates the experience with breathtaking Sonoran Desert vistas, enchanting art displays and crackling adobe fireplaces set against the grandeur of Camelback Mountain. Here are some of our favorite spots for embracing the great outdoors while you dine.

LON’S
The intimate patio at LON’s at The Hermosa Inn (left) provides the perfect backdrop for a romantic dinner under the stars. Enjoy a handcrafted cocktail at a candlelit table next to the crackling adobe fireplace. Order from the chef’s tasting menu of Arizona-inspired global cuisine or choose from the “classics” menu, which includes wood-fired meats and seafood. No matter which menu you choose, an expert sommelier is always on hand to recommend the perfect wine pairings.

AZ88
AZ88 (above) is best known for its signature filled-to-the-rim martinis, unusual contemporary art displays (think a Christmas tree made of Barbie dolls), lively atmosphere and sleek patio overlooking leafy Scottsdale Civic Center Park. Adjacent to Scottsdale Center for the Arts and Scottsdale Museum of Contemporary Art, AZ88’s patio is the perfect setting to sip a frosty craft beer, order a burger with waffle fries and snag a front-row seat to some of Scottsdale’s best people-watching.

TALAVERA
For the ultimate al fresco dining experience, Talavera at the Four Seasons Resort Scottsdale (below) offers breathtaking views of nearby Pinnacle Peak, dramatic desert sunsets and distant glimmering city lights. The menu at this contemporary Spanish steakhouse features a feast of tapas, paella, charcuterie, seafood and beef dishes. After dinner, indulge in a slice of spicy, dark chocolate Diablo Cake with Licor 43 marmalade, then relax with an after-dinner drink surrounded by the enchanting solitude of the desert.

OLD TOWN TORTILLA FACTORY
Housed in a 75-year-old adobe home, Old Town Tortilla Factory beckons guests with a 1,400-square-foot patio shaded by 100-year-old pecan trees, as well as a diverse menu of Southwestern- and Sonoran-inspired fare. Adorned with twinkle lights, the flagstone patio boasts a fire-topped fountain and a bar featuring... more than 120 premium tequilas. Visit the climate-controlled patio year-round – misted in the summer and heated in the winter – and be sure to sample the fresh, house-made tortillas.

EL CHORRO

Built in 1934 as a girls’ school, El Chorro (below) occupies one of the most beautiful spots in the Valley of the Sun. Nestled between rugged Camelback and Mummy mountains, this rustic restaurant features classic dinner fare from fried chicken to filet mignon, but it’s most famous for its brown sugar–glazed sticky buns. A seat on the lushly landscaped patio for dinner or Sunday brunch promises spectacular mountain views and stunning Southwestern sunsets.

LINCOLN, A JW STEAKHOUSE

Lincoln (top), nestled in the heart of Paradise Valley at the JW Marriott Camelback Inn, serves up steakhouse classics like Wagyu butcher's steaks, sustainably sourced market fish and a variety of gourmet vegetarian dishes, including cauliflower steak. The restaurant boasts not one, but two patios with sweeping views of the resort's name-sake, Camelback Mountain. Even an indoor seat won't disappoint, with floor-to-ceiling windows and sleek, contemporary décor.
Spectacular Views - Classic Cuisine

Enjoy Outdoor Dining on the Patio

Our patio is the perfect place to enjoy El Chorro classic cuisine and breathtaking views with friends and family. We’re excited to share our new menu as well as our El Chorro favorites. And of course, our Sticky Buns are ready to enjoy, too!

Make plans to join us for dinner or Sunday Brunch. Our patio is waiting for you!

We follow all COVID-19 protocols as outlined by Maricopa County and the Town of Paradise Valley.

Denotes Old Town Scottsdale location
OLD TOWN SCOTTSDALE'S ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT
The beauty of a night out in Scottsdale is that it can be as lively or laid-back as you’d like. From see-and-be-seen nightclubs and come-as-you-are bars to bowling, bull riding and golf (yup, even at night), Scottsdale’s nightlife scene is as wildly individual as you are! Here are 10 suggestions for a fun night on the town.

Number One
HIGH-TECH BOWLING
These are not your grandpa’s bowling alleys. Old Town’s Skylanes is a second-story, boutique bowling club offering six digitally enhanced lanes, high-energy music and a jumbo LED wall, as well as killer cocktails and a late-night bites menu to keep you fueled. Over at Mavrix (above), get your game on with 22 lanes, including private VIP lanes that feature Spark augmented-reality bowling and a private bar. Mavrix also offers laser tag, billiards and arcade games to keep the fun going long after the last strike. skylanesaz.com / mavrix.com

Number Two
PEDAL PARTY
If you’re partying with a group of friends, reserve the 15-passenger Arizona Party Bike for an Old Town pub crawl. The Party Bike features a rockin’ sound system and LED party lights, and it can even carry a cooler with adult beverages for your ride – just in case you get thirsty in between bar stops. arizonapartybike.com
Number Three
DJS & BOTTLE SERVICE
Looking for deejays and VIP bottle service? Head for Old Town Scottsdale’s Entertainment District! First stop, the W Scottsdale’s swanky Shade Lounge for champagne and a glamorous crowd. At El Hefe, you can dance on confetti-covered tables and partake in shots from whistle-blowing bartenders. And at Riot House, the breezy South Beach vibes combine with DJs and an extensive bottle service menu for an unforgettable night out. wscottsdalehotel.com / elhefe.com / rihousescottsdale.com

Number Four
SING ALONG
Ready to unleash your inner superstar with a night of no-holds-barred karaoke? Head for Old Town’s Geisha A Go Go (above)! It’s the perfect spot for a night out with friends, offering private rooms for small squads of six to groups up to 20. The sushi bar and cocktail program are as on-point as their pop and rock ‘n’ roll song list, making Geisha a karaoke local legend. When you’re ready for a bigger audience, check out The Grapevine, which features hosted karaoke sessions every night of the week! geishaagogo.com / grapevineaz.com

Number Five
BULL RIDING
Kick up your heels – you’re in the West, after all! Cave Creek’s Buffalo Chip Saloon amps up the excitement with amateur and pro bull riding Wednesday and Friday evenings, as well as live music and free dance lessons throughout the week. Order s’mores to cook over an outdoor fire and soak up the Western ambiance. buffalochipsaloon.com
NIGHTLIFE

Number Seven

OLD TOWN WINE & ALE TRAILS
Get your evening started with a taste of the local terroir. Old Town Scottsdale is home to tasting rooms from several of the state's finest wineries and craft breweries, as well as wine- and beer-forward restaurants. Most offer tasting flights so you can try a variety of vintages and brews. Download your free wine and ale trail maps here.

Number Six

URBAN COWBOYS
More of an urban cowboy or cowgirl? Old Town Scottsdale’s Rusty Spur Saloon, the city’s oldest cowboy bar, is a cozy establishment offering live music daily from midday to midnight, with the added bonus of free line-dancing lessons a few times a week. You also can try out your two-step at Handlebar J Restaurant & Saloon, where the Herndon Brothers Band takes the stage and free dance lessons are offered on select evenings.

Number Eight

TAKE A DIVE (BAR, THAT IS)
Open since 1959, Coach House is a favorite among locals and visitors alike. This cozy dive bar boasts a few inside tables as well as a long community bar table on the patio. If you’re in town over the holidays, the Coach House is a must-see for its extravagant display of Christmas lights that covers almost every square inch of the place.

Number Nine

GET YOUR GAME ON
Feeling lucky? Head for the Casino at Talking Stick Resort. The state-of-the-art gaming floor offers more than 700 of the latest slot machines, including those in the high-limit room that offer denominations up to $25. If cards are your game of choice, you’ll enjoy more than 50 table games, including Blackjack, Three Card Poker and Let It Ride. The Casino also is home to the largest poker room in the state, which features games like Texas Hold ’Em, Omaha and 7-Card Stud.

talkingstickresort.com
Number Ten
SWING A CLUB

Topgolf is a brilliant reinvention of the driving range. This sports entertainment venue is open until midnight daily and offers three bars, a restaurant, non-golf games (think billiards, shuffleboard and Xbox) and three levels of cushy, climate-controlled golf bays. Grab some friends, reserve one of the couch-lined bays and choose from more than a dozen golf games that use micro-chipped balls and color-coded targets ranging in distance from 25 to 215 yards. Best of all, no golf experience is required! topgolf.com
